BEREA PUBLISHING CO.

[INCORPORATED] WM. G. FROST, Editor-in-Chief WERTENBERGER, Managing Edit F. O. BOWMAN, Assistant Manage ed at the Post-office at Berea, Ky., as seco

THE CITIZEN

Devoted to the Interests of the Mountain People

Knowledge is power- and the way to keep up with modern knowledge is to read a good newspaper.

Five Cents a Copy.

BEREA, MADISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, APRIL 1, 1915.

One Dollar a Year.

No. 40.

The Government Protects Game

The wild creatures of the forest are among the most beautiful things God ever made. The pursuit of them with dogs and guns is a noble sport but is often carried too far: Regions which were once inhabited by a great many kinds of birds and animals are now solitary, and some forms of game, like the American wild pigeon are said to be entirely killed out.

In the interest of the hunter and all lovers of beauty the legislatures have enacted laws for the protection of game, and besides this the Government has incured expense in importing game so that it could stock the forest with birds and animals and fill the streams with fish.

In the matter of game birds there is great anxiety in Kentucky and the Government has recently sent a number of English pheasants in the hope that they will multiply and stock our forests with beautiful game.

The Forest Reserve of Berea College is the best refuge for such birds in the state and fifteen pheasants have just been sent to be turned loose there. These beautiful birds arrived last Tuesday, five cocks and ten hens—one hen died in captivity. They were exhibited at the College Tuesday and released that evening. The College Reserve is posted according to law and the strictest watch will be kept to prevent hunters from killing these birds. If these birds and some other wild game, including the wild turkey, is allowed to reproduce and multiply they will spread out from the College Forest Reserve. It is hoped that every lover of hunting as well as lovers of beauty, will help the College in keeping "pot-hunters" off the College domain. The penalties for shooting on land which is posted are rightly severe.

That Semi-Centennial Celebration

In last week's Citizen there was a in abundance, including the Colshort article calling attention to the lege band and vocal numbers. A er control of the new corporation fact that the 9th of April marks the song by one of the Union soldiers is wholly undeveloped, but it is exsemi-centennial of the surrender of will be a feature of the occasion. Lee's Confederate army, which made Another unique event will be the beened up within two years. This the result of the war a certainty. A calling upon old soldiers individualcelebration of this event will be held ly to tell in a single sentence where in all parts of our country. The one they received the news, in 1865, and Tailroad extensions on the Lexingin Berea is to be in the College how the "boys" then acted. This Chapel, at 7:30 p.m. sharp, of Friday, meeting is for all, old and young, a boom, and be on a fair road to the the 9th inst. The program is being citizens and students, men and wom-"Pittsburg of Kentucky." carefully planned with reference to en. No admittance is charged. All closing at 9:00 o'clock. The exercis- are advised to come in good season, es will be so varied, and of such pe- so as to be sure to secure seats. Do culiar interest, as to make it one of not forget that there is to be no dalthe notable events of the year. Sev-lying. The exercises begin on the eral short addresses are arranged minute above designated. for, no single one to exceed ten min- further details may be looked for in utes in length. There will be music our next issue.

CONTENTS

mon, The Straight Gate,-Itter-national Sunday School Lesson.

Corn Growing,-Good Roads, -

Fall in Line for Clean-Up-Day,

Expert Talks on Clean-Up Work.

PAGE 5 .- College and Other Local

PAGE 6.—Serial, Waitstill Baxter,

PAGE 8 .- East Kentucky News. -

Vision of the Valley.

Easter Poem.

Chapter 6 .- A Double Deception.

PAGE 3.-Mountain Agriculture. -

PAGE 4.-Local Items.

PAGE 1 .- Editorial, The Government erly who suffered for us that our on the land of Mowbray & Robinson Protects Game.-That Semi-Centennial Celebration .- Our Own State News. --- United States News .- World and War News, PAGE 2 Consider the Lilies, Ser-

Waitstill Baxter is getting more this year.-Winchester Sun. readers do not want to miss a number of this interesting story. Have

-Celebration in Greek Countries. PAGE 7.-In the Home.-An Indian Story of the Arbutus.—Symbols of the Easter Time.-Miss the same.

ed at in this issue, in his article.

interesting each issue. Many of our Man is Said to Be Wanted For Long you read it thus far?

What does the picture on this ronto Jimmy" and his pal for safe page indicate if it does not mean vic- blowing here and at Nashville, Tenn. tory to the federal cause during the was positively indentified today by sixties. Read the announcement be-Pinkertons from Nashville as Barlow it and come to Berea on the 9th ney Hunt, alias James Keating. A and enjoy the celebration of the close Federal reward notice bears Brayof the civil war. See other notices ton's picture and he is said to be in this same issue relating to the wanted for a string of crimes all

News Snapshots Of the Week

troops landed in attack on Turkish forts. Rae Tanzer, shopgirl, sued James W. Osborne, prominent New York attorney, for $50,000 for breach of promise. After a siege of eight months Przemysl, a strongly fortified Austrian city, capitulated to Russians, about 150,000 prisoners being taken. Russian army under General Dimitrieff then advanced on Cracow, another Austrian

DAVID LLOYD-GEORGE.

Latest Picture of Chancellor of the Exchequer, England.

ALLIES SEEKING WAR

MONEY IN AMERICA

Millions to Be Used Purchasing

Supplies In U. S.

New York, March 30 .- It is under completed between J. P. Morgan and stood that negotiations have been representatives of the French govern ment, for the establishment in this country of a French credit of approximately $50,000,000. It is expected in banking circles that a statement will be forthcoming within the next twen ty-four hours. It was intimated at the offices of J. P. Morgan and company that the firm would have something to say on the matter this evening. The plans under which the credit is to be established have been submitted to the state department at Washington and the other, authorities there, and are said to have had approval.

The credit, it is understood, will take the form of treasury bonds for one year, to bear interest at the rate of five per cent. It is expected that there will be a public offering of the French securities, and that the transaction will be handled by a strong banking syndicate, headed by J. P.

Morgan and company. The notes will be of $1,000 denomination, and the funds received from their sale will remain in this country to be devoted to the purchase of American goods

Negotiation looking to the establishment of a British credit, believed to be in the neighborhood of $100,000,

000, to be secured through the sale of exchequer bonds in this country,

while in progress, is not so near com

It is said that it will be a matter o several days before a definite anpletion as the French credit.

uncement will be made.

needed by the French.

stronghold John H. Patterson and twenty-six associates in National Cash Register company won appeal which made void all anti-trust penalties against them. Austria massed troops on Italian border, as Italy's preparations showed warlike intentions. Several demands of Japan on China accepted, but doubt still existed among powers as to just what the mikado has insisted on.

Free from the Plaque

The 29th was the first day for months that there has not been a case of foot and mouth disease reported to the Department of Agriculture or the Livestock Sanitary Board at Frankfort. Dr. Mussellman, State Veterinarian, said on that day, so far as the disease is conberned Kentucky is absolutely free from it, but there may be a few more cases to develop.

Irvine to Have New Lighting and Ice Plant

On account of a hitch in the purchase of a suitable site for the new plant the works will not be installed before the first of May. A very de- and that the only way to protect both sirable location has been secured by the Light and Ice Co. just east of the freight depot and north of the tracks. A part of the machinery has arrived and it is understood that work will begin at once.

A New Business for Hazard

The Eastern Electrical Supply and Construction Co., incorporated, is the style of the new firm just established in Hazard by local men. The company will do a general electrical business and carry all kinds of supplies of that line. The manager, Mr. Curtis, is highly recommended. means another feather in Hazard's

Great Coal Merger Puts Five Firms Under One Name

A consolidation was effected at Lexington recently by which a $3,-000,000 corporation, to be known as the Kentucky River Corporation, will take over 100,000 acres of rich coal lands in Knott, Leslie, Letcher and Perry Counties. The new company in one ocean, leaving one side of the will be incorporated under the laws of Virginia. The territory now undwill mean employment to 10,000 to 45,000 people. This move will mean ton & Eastern R. R. Jackson will get

Pennsylvania State Students Will

Study Kentucky Forests Professor R. R. Chaffle, instructor in forestry and engineering at the Pennsylvania State College, together with fifteen senior students spent Sunday night at Winchester while enroute to Quicksand, where a study The glad Easter time is here when of Kentucky forests and lumber we should think of Him most tend- mills will be made. They will camp salvation might be a possibility. Read Mill Company in Breathitt County those good things that you will find for about eight weeks. A complete in this issue on this subject and re- survey of this firm's large holdjoice that we are so happily situ- ings will be made during their stay and an estimate of all the different kinds of timber on the land will be Farmers you will do well to read made. This is done in order that and make a study of the subject of the students may have a practical corn raising as Mr. Spence has hint- knowledge of their studies before completing their course, and it is their third trip out from the school

List of Crimes.

Paducah, Ky., March 27.-The man who has been calling himself J. A. Brayton since his arrest with "To-

Through the Canal to Exposition-Earth Slides Interfere with Plans.

Washington.-Efforts to obtain appropriations for a large navy will be made during the next session of Congress on the score that the Panama Canal is a failure as a great navy adjunct. When the building of the canal was proposed it was asserted that it would multiply the efficiency of the United States navy by two, as it would permit the quick transfer of the en tire fleet from one coast to the other. Now a number of Congressmen, including Representative Stephens, of California, are coming forward with the assertion that this multiplication is rather a sentimental consideration coasts is to have two large and efficient fleets. The theory that the building of the canal would make it so easily possible for the battleships to go from one comen to the other and that a single fleet would do the service of two, in the opinion of Stephens, will not be borne out.

One evidence of this is the fact that the slides in Culebra cut are interfering so seriously with the traffic through the canal that the plan to send a great armada of battle ships through the canal to the Pacific to attend the San Francisco Exposition is not likely to be carried out.

It is clear that in the present un certainty of canal traffic no reliance can be placed on the free or safe movement of the dreadnaughts of the other, but further excavation in Cule bra cut may remedy this situation Stephens, at the hearing before the House Naval Committee, compelled the Navy Department officials to ad mit in effect that in a time of public danger it would not satisfy the public to have the big battle ships assembled country unprotected. Secretary Dan iels admitted that he would not fee comfortable on the Atlantic Coast in time of war if the fleet were on the Pacific Coast.

Two Americans Hit by Stray Bullets Bullets of Mexicans

Washington March 30 -- Flerce fight ing, which is now certain, between the opposing forces at Matamoras Mexico, just across the border line from Brownsville, Tex., prompted the war department to make arrange ments to rush additional American troops to Brownsville to protect life and property there in the event of an emergency arising as a result of the battle on Mexican soil.

That the operations in Matamoras menace life in Brownsville is indicated in a dispatch received from Gen eral Funston to the effect that al ready two persons have been wound ed in the streets of that city by stray bullets from across the border. Gen eral Funston has been instructed to warn the Mexican commanders that they must prevent firing across the international boundary line.

Orders were issued for one regiment of infantry, stationed at Texas City, and three batteries of artillery at San Antonio, to hold themselves in readiness, if called upon by General Funston, who is in command of the United States forces on the border, to proceed at once to Brownsville.

There are stationed at Brownsville at present one squadron of the Third cavalry, a machine gun platoon and battery of the Sixth Field artillery. Up the Rio Grande, within one hun dred miles, there are two squadrons of the Twelfth cavalry and additions troops at Fort McIntosh and Fort San Houston, which could be landed at Brownsville in less than twenty-four

200 PREACHERS AND TEACHERS WANTED to win 200 CITIZEN FOUN-In an official quarter it was said that if shots are fired across the border at Brownsville that the American forces have no authority to reply in busy and line up with college preskind without specific instructions from Washington
(Continued on page Two.)

TAIN PENS for 2 yearly subscriptions each for THE CITIZEN. Get idents, professors, bankers and business men who use this fine pen.

FLEET ATTACK ON BOSPORUS

Russian Battleships Threaten Constantinople.

GEN. VON KLUCK WOUNDED

Russians Pressing Into Hungary-Deolared Austria Must Sue For Peace When Italy Enters War - Lloyd George Meets Delegation.

London, March 30.-The Russian Black sea fleet attack on the Dardanelles, long expected, has begun. This attack is intended to supplement the attack which is being made on the Dardanelles from the Aegean by the Anglo-French fleet, thus placing a Lotile fleet at each of the two sea doors of Constantinople. The Black sea, mouth of the Bosporus, now under fire, is only eighteen miles from the city.

The beginning of the Russian at-tack is described in the following official statement issued by the Russian general staff:

"The Black sea fleet bombarded the outside forts and batteries on the Bosporus on both sides of the strait. "According to observations made from ships and hydroplanes, our shells fell with exactitude. Russian ariators flying above the Bosporus batteries carried out reconnaissances and dropped bombs with success. A heavy artillery fire was directed at the avia tors without success.

"The enemy's torpedo boats, which tried to come out, were driven back into the strait by the fire of our guns. "A large hostile ship which was trying to get into the Bosporus from seaward, was bombarded by us. She finally keeled over and blew up."

The Russians are continuing their progress in Hungary, while the Germans, apparently in an effort to divert Russian attention from this field, are continuing their activity in Poland The Germans made a desperate effort on Sunday to recapture the trenches lost to the French on Saturday at Les Eparges in the Woevre district. The French official report says that the French generally held their ground against these attacks.

Chancellor Lloyd George received a committee representing the shipbuilding federation, who told of the necessity of total prohibition in Great Brit-Lloyd George, in his reply, said that "we are fighting Germany, Austria and drink, and as far as I can see the greatest of these deadly foes is drink.

German headquarters announces that General Von Kluck, who led the early rush into France, has been slightly wounded by shrapnel. The German statement announces the storming of Tauroggen, northeast of Tilsit, by the Germans, and says that the Russians have suffered heavily in the Krasnopol district.

Senator Mazzioti, in a newspaper article published in Italy, says that Austria is bound to sue for peace as soon as Italy and Roumania enter the war, and that thus their intervention will end the war.

The closing of the session of the Italian senate was marked by great

141 LIVES LOST ON SHIPS

Falaba and Aguila Destroyed by Gen man Submarines.

London, March 30.-The loss of life in the sinking of the passenger steamship Falaba by a German submarine off the south coast of Wales on Saturday is placed at about 118, accord ing to figures given out by the admiralty. The admiralty's announce ment states that the crew of the ves

(Continued on page Two.)

The Citizen

A family newspaper for all that is right, true and interesting.

Published every Thursday at Berea, Ky.

BEREA PUBLISHING CO. (Incorporated) WM. G. FROST, Editor-in-Chief C. H. WERTENBERGER, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

F. O. BOWMAN, Assistant Manager

Order. Draft, Registered Letter, or one and two cent stamps.

The date after your name on label shows to what date your subscription is paid. If it is not changed within three weeks after renewal notify us.

Missing numbers will be gladly supplied if we are notified.

Liberal terms given to any who obtain new subscriptions for us. Any one sending us four yeart; subscriptions can receive The Citizen free for himself for one year.

Advertising rates on application.

MEMBER OF

KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

No Whiskey Advertisements! No Immodest News Items!

WEATHER EVERYWHERE. Observations of United States weather bureaus taken at 8 p. m.

Temp.		Weather.
New York	38	Clear
Boston	34	Clear
Denver	32	Cloudy
Chicago	30	Clear
Indianapolis	36	Clear
St. Louis	42	Cloudy
Omaha	22	Cloudy
New Orleans	68	Clear
Washington	46	Clear
San Francisco.	52	Rain

Forecast-Fair.

300 BASEBALL PLAYERS WANT-ED to catch with 300 fielder's gloves for 2 yearly subscriptions each for THE CITIZEN. This is the glove you will pay $1.00 for in the stores.

> UNITED STATES NEWS (Continued from page 1)

BANK ROBBERS GET AWAY

Oklahoma City, Okla.-All trace of the band of desperadoes who escaped from Stroud, Okla., after robbing two national banks of $5,000, apparently was lost. After eluding a number of mounted posses and a company of Oklahoma National Guard they were reported to have passed through Kelly. ville on their way to the fastness of the Kiamichi Mountains. Since then no report of their being seen has been received. The condition of Henry Starr, Cherokee desperado, and another of the bank named Estes, was reported improved.

WORLD NEWS (Continued from Page 1)

sel numbered about ninety and that she carried about 160 passengers. There were 140 survivors, of whom eight, including the captain of the ves sel, died after they were picked up. It is feared that many were killed by the explosion of the torpedo. At the same time the admiralty an nounced that twenty-three of the crew and three passengers of the steamer Aguila, torpedoed by a German submarine in the channel on Saturday are missing. The master of the vessel and nineteen members of the grew have been landed at Fish-The Falaba, which was engaged in the African trade, left Liverpool Saturday night. Wireless signals of distress were received from her at Lands End, when the Falaba was off Milford Haven.

What the Panama Canal Will Do For American Farmers

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, Judson C. Welliver, Washington correspondent of that publication, writes an interesting article in which he tells in part as follows what the Panama Canal is doing and will do for American farmers:

"I am told that wheat from Montana and other Northwest regions is this year moving to the coast in a volume never before dreamed of,

Why? "Because the canal is open, and it is possible to haul grain from a great distance inland to the Pacific terminals, and there put it on ships for Eastern and European ports cheaper than it can be taken east that goes west, that formerly went by rail. traffic of the railroads. As time ducts that in the past has swept sees more development of the canal's eastward and submerged the agripossibilities the Pacific ports will culture of the Eastern States. Eastdraw more and more from inland; ern cities and industrial districts they will reach farther and farther will need new supplies. They will under this stimulus; the Middle that they must raise them. That West will find both Atlantic and means a huge impetus to the agri-Pacific and also Gulf ports bidding cultural revival in the East and for its products. Every trainload Southeast."

GLORIOUS INAUGURATION OF WORLD'S GREATEST INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATION ASSURES CONTINUED SUCCESS

ITH an attendance for the first week greater than the combined attendance for the same period of the world's expositions at Chicago and St. Louis, the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco has started on a career that the most conservative judgments predict will break all records for exposition success.

The exposition opened on February 20, 100 per cent complete structurally, and opened to an attendance of one quarter of a million people. From every state of the United States and from the nations of the world came critical visitors to pass on the merits of the celebration that had been so widely heralded. They found nothing to criticize. Every claim made by San Francisco and the exposition was fulfilled. It is safe to say that not a single visitor went away disappointed. The result has been that the advertisement by word of mouth, and by letters home and to friends—the most powerful form of advertisement—has been given the exposition. In consequence the transportation companies report a constantly increasing booking for travel to San Francisco both by land and water.

Exceptionally low rates have been given by the transportation companies from all points within the United States to San Francisco, offering many people an opportunity that could not otherwise be taken, of combining a pleasure journey to the exposition with a sightseeing tour through California and the West.

A feature of the exposition that has called for universal comment is the "action" that marks exhibits, every exhibit capable of operation by steam or electricity being shown in motion.

A flood of inquiries concerning rates and hotel accommodations has been received by the information bureau of the exposition since the news of its successful opening was flashed around the world, all such inquiries being given prompt attention. San Francisco and California are fulfilling their host duties and living up to the reputation the West has always had for hospitable treatment for the stranger.

HANDSOME SIXTY-PAGE BOOK ON THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION SENT FREE OF CHARGE TO ANY ADDRESS.

Those who are interested in this great exposition may obtain free of charge a handsomely illustrated book of sixty pages, reproducing the exhibit palaces in their natural colors and giving essential data about the exposition, San Francisco, California and the Panama canal. To obtain this book send a letter to the Manager, Bureau of Publication, Panama-Pacific International Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Calif.

NOT FOR BLIND FOLLOWING

Rules for the Correct Use of Good English Have Many Qualifications and Exceptions.

A correspondent at Salem writes the Oregonian to inquire whether such expressions as "blacksmith shop, barber shop, carpenter shop" and the like are correct. There is no authority for any of them. He also asks the same question about "blacksmiths' shop, barbers' shop, carpenters' shop." These are also incorrect. In the first list the apostrophe is omitted. In the second it is placed after the final "s."

The proper usage is to place the apostrophe before the final "s." correct expressions are blacksmith's shop, barber's shop, carpenter's shop. The same rule applies in all similar cases, but it must be applied discriminatingly. If two blacksmiths owned a shop together we might properly speak of "the blacksmiths' shop" and in like circumstances it would be correct to write "barbers' shop."

Good English is not a thing that can be attained by following blind rules without thought. It requires both knowledge and sound judgment. There is hardly a rule of grammar that does not have a great many qualifications and exceptions. — Portland Oregonian.

Nature's Balloon.

Did you know that nature invented the first balloon in the shape of a species of fish popularly called the "swellfish?" The swellfish is quite common in southern Atlantic waters. It has yellow stripes from head to tail, which makes it look as though it were covered with fancy silk. The funniest thing about it is that, when pursued by enemies in its native element, it immediately begins to swallow air in great quantities, puffing itself up until it is nearly spherical in shape. Then it rises to the surface of the water, and converting itself into a balloon, is blown along over the waves by the wind.

The naturalists say the air is taken in between the parchment-like skin and the muscular coat of the body proper. There is a valve which prevents the air from flowing out until the fish so chooses. The prick of a pin, however, will cause the whole affair to collapse at an instant's no-tice, like a balloon.

Man and Bear in Duel.

A fight to the death between a man and a bear is reported from Taluk Jamdiha, in the district of Manbhum, India. Rajkishore Singha, a man noted for his prowess as a big game hunter, was returning home from a hunt in the jungle on the southwestern bank of the river Damodar when he saw a full-grown bear rapidly approaching him. He was about to load his gun when, to his dismay, he found he had fired his last cartridge. The bear made a rush at Singha, who defended himself with the butt end of his gun. Singha, who succeeded in killing the bear, was afterwards found unconscious, and was conveyed to the bungalow of the civil surgeon at Purulia. His body was badly lacerated but his recovery is expected.

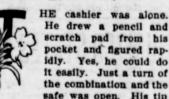

Also Made His Exit.

"Professor, what has become of Tom Appleton? Wasn't he studying with the class last year?"

"Ah, yes. Appleton, poor fellow! A fine student, but absent-minded in the use of chemicals-very. That discoloration on the ceiling—notice it?"

"That's Tom's,"
"I'm not surprised. I always thought.
Tom would make his mark if he got a chance."-Santa Rosa (Cal.) Press-Democrat.

east, will be that much subtracted "This all adds to the west-bound from the flood of agricultural proeast; and the railroads will profit. have to get them nearer home; and "The Great West will develop getting them nearer home means on certain stocks came from a man with inside knowledge, and to take the money from the bank would just be borrowing it. The stocks were scheduled to make a wild plunge upward within the next few days and then he could sell, replace the money he had taken from the safe before it was missed and have enough ahead to justify several of his intended moves toward social advancement. Why, it was all just the simplest thing in the world to accomplish! All the time he argued with himself he was not quite easy in his conscience, but his thought of the confidential position of the friend who had given him the tip made the outcome seem a certainty-an end that would surely justify the means. He pulled the blind, unlocked the safe, concealed the money he needed on his person, carefully covering his tracks. Then he locked the safe and quietly let himself into the balmy April air. It was past midnight when he stole silently out of his home for a little walk, being unable to sleep. The moonlight held the world in its thrall, bathing the spring flowers in its silvery light, but the cashier was oblivious to its beauty as he wandered aimlessly down first one street and then another, until his attention was arrested by the sound of a glad hosanna from a nearby church—the final choir rehearsal for Easter music. Scarcely realizing what he did the troubled man slipped into the vestibule of the big church, drawn by the lights, the music and the hunger for human companionship which gnawed his troubled heart. As he stood undecided what he should do the joyous anthem ended, the choir filed into the vestry room and the old sexton turned out all save the chancel lights. The cashier slipped quietly into the church and sank wearily into a seat, his eyes fixed on the lily-laden altar. Easter lilies were everywhere. Great banks of them covered the altar, and from every nook and corner they gleamed white in the dim chancel They were like a prayer-a mother's prayer for her childrenpure, and clean, and white. Their delicate fragrance was pleasant to his senses, but above all else it was their whiteness which riveted his thought. He could not get away from it.

Yes, He Could Do It Easily.

Suddenly he buried his face in his hands to shut the lilies away from his sight, while he went over the argument he had used to himself when h had taken the money from the safe. But, strangely, in the midst of his effort at justification, the whiteness and purity of the Easter lilies surged through his brain.

Then out of the stillness a sound was made. It was the sound of a voice—the voice of his mother. "Consider the lilies," it pleaded soft-

The cashier sprang to his feet and looked about him wildly. There was no one in the big lily-laden church except himself-himself-and the voice. 'Consider the lilies," came the adyice to him once more.

The voice was unmistakable. Although his mother had been dead lo. these twenty years, he could never forget the gentleness of her voice. But that was not all. The admonition had a familiar ring which was not of the voice alone, nor yet of some long-forgotten reading. The words were borne in upon his senses now as in that long-ago yester-year, when, as a little lad, he had sat in the living room of his home listening to his father's heartbroken confession to his mother that he had failed in business. It was Easter then as now. On the broad casement of the low French window stood a row of exquisite white lilies. His mother had turned from his stricken father to regard them, and over her face had come that tender. confident smile the little lad had so loved. "Consider the lilles," she had told the man, "they toil not, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." And his father had taken her into his arms with a great sob, while the little lad had looked on, understanding only that his mother had somehow helped his father over a great crisis.

Stood Clutching the Seat.

And now in the crisis of his own life, when temptation had mastered him, he sat alone in a lily-laden church and los the voice of his mother bade him "consider the lilies." Whence had it come? From the heart of an Easter lily? Or had it come into the house of God with him with a ray of moonlight? Or, was the voice in his brain alone-born of memories? He could not tell, and it did not matter. When he had laid her away twenty years ago he had not laid away the influence that had been hers all through his young life, her faith in him, her smile, nor the memory of a certain day when he had been graduated from college and had promised her that he would seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness through all the days that he should live. And he had kept his promiseuntil tonight, when the greed of gold became the dominating motive of his life; tonight, when the thirst for luxury had conquered him.

The cashier stood clutching the seat of the pew in front of him, his eyes fixed on the lily-banked altar. Then he squared his shoulders even as he had seen his father do in that longgone year. And when the first soft flush of Easter day crept across the eastern sky the money was safe in the bank again. For the cashier kept faith with his mother.

Easter.

"She, supposing him to be the gardener-

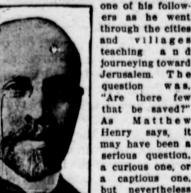

Dead is our Christ and our hearts cry "Where?"
We would peer in the tomb behind thee.
Ah! Not there!
But as of old in the open air,
Out in the garden, Lord, we find thee.
—Mary Eleanor Roberts, in Lippincott's

The Straight Gate

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D. D. Dean of Moody Bible Institute

 TEXT-Strive to enter in at the straight gate; for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.—Luke

The occasion for this warning of Jesus was a question asked him by journeying toward Jerusalem. The question WAS. 'Are there few that be saved?" Matthew Henry says, it may have been a serious question, a curious one, or a captious one, but nevertheless it was one of deep and momentous importance to us. As another says, if one needs to know the number of the saved in this dispensation he has only to look around him and compare the ways of man, with the word of God. He will soon come to the conclusion, if he is an honest man, that the saved are few. It is an aw-ful conclusion, and our souls naturally turn away from it, but Scripture as well as fact shut us up to it. Salvation is offered to all, but few are willing to comply with its terms.

The Need of Effort. Our Lord answers the question in an 'lirect way by a solemn exhortation p this duty, "Strive to enter in at the straight gate." Whatever others may think about it, he would have us feel the need for exertion. This need is not because salvation is so difficult in itself, for it is written that Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13). But the striving 's necessitated (1) by the power of the counteracting influences of the world, whose gate is "wide," as we see from Matthew 7:13 and (2) because of the subtlety of false teachers, as we see in the same Scripture; and finally (3), because of the urgency of the times, inasmuch as the day is coming, and perhaps sooner than we expect, when "The Master of the house" shall "sbut the door."

The Self-Deceived Ones. Our Lord enforces his exhortation by describing that day, adding: "For many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in and shall not be able." The long-suffering of God towards men will some day have an end. It will be the day when our Lord shall come again, and we know not how soon it may be. The throne of grace will be removed then and the throne of judgment set up in its place.

But the most astounding part of it is that so many in that day will find In this place in Luke, and in the parallel place in Matthew's Gospel, Christ calls attention to four kinds of self-deception. He speaks of those who have been his guests, so to speak, eating and drinking in his presence: he speaks of those who have listened to his teachings; of those who have taught his word, and of those who have wrought his signs. None of these on that account merely have any claim upon his blessing in the life to come What need there is for solemn selfexamination here.

The Meaning of the Gate. Of course when our Lord : peaks of the "gate" he really means himself, and he said at another time, "I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved and shall go in and out and find pasture. (John 10:9)." We enter in by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior and confessing him as our Lord. Have you yet definitely done this? If so, why not do it now as you think upon these words? The distinguishing mark that we are saved, that we are his disciples, and that eternal glory is before us, is the fruit that we bear. Christ makes this very plain, in this same discourse, but blessed be his name when we receive him as our Savior he gives us his Holy Spirit so that we are enabled to bring forth this fruit, indeed he himself produces it in us. Who would not trust himself to such a friend? Let me urge you to do it as the first and most important of all things for your well-being in time and eternity. I know there are other things, other allurements, holding you back, but what are they in comparison with this?

There was a shipwreck on the Pacific one or two winters ago, when a certain vessel went to pieces, on which there was a passenger who had with him a bag containing $1,500 in Survivors said that he frantically offered that bag of gold to any one who would place him on shore but his gold lay on the broken deck, kicked under foot, no one stopping to pick it up. How this impresses us with the importance of salvation and eternal life above all things which this world can offer, and the importance of our striving to "enter in at the straight gate" while the opportunity offers.

Virtuous and noble deeds are bet ter than the scholar.-Euripedes.

INTERNATIONAL  SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course, Moody Bible In-Sunday School Costitute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 4

SAUL REJECTED BY THE LORD.

LESSON TEXT-I Samuel 15:10-23. GOLDEN TEXT-Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice.-I Samuel 15:22.

Jonathan's victory (ch. 14) brought with it a sinning on the part of the hungry, harassed Israelites in that they ate of the spoils "with the blood" (14:31, 32; Lev. 3:17, 7:26). In the emergency Saul erected "the first altar that he built unto the Lord" (ch 14:35), a rather dilatory act on the part of a God-anointed king. Saul had resorted to the subterfuge of commanding the people "to roll a great stone," f.e., cut the throats of the animals of which they had eaten that they might bleed, and thus be an evi-dence that the animals had died before being eaten. This the people did, fearing Saul, but having no scruples in transgressing God's commands. These same people rescued Jonathan from the foolish vow of Saul, for it was his faith and valor that had chief ly brought about the victory.

I. God's Sorrow, vv. 10-12. Samuel had first revealed God's purpose in making Saul king, and likewise first declared God's purpose to dispose of Saul (v. 10). Saul's actions (vv. 1-9) had stamped him as being no longer worthy of God's confidence. The word "repenteth," meaning "to sigh" (v. 11), denotes a change of feeling due to Saul's actions and not to any change in the character, purpose or desires of Good. God was sorry that Saul had proved himself unworthy. A half-way obedience of God's com mand only heightened his guilt. Whatever moral difficulties seem to lie, for a later age, in Saul's commission against Amalek, there were none such for him" (Vaughn). Man's repentance involves a change of mind and purpose. In Saul's case God repented, changed the instrument of his execution, because of the change of circumstances and relation. God is ever the same; it is man alone who changes. Saul had given Samuel cause for anger (v. 11 R. V.), but he did the wise thing in taking it to God in prayer. Arising early the next morning Samuel hastened to acquaint Saul with Jehovah's message. It is remarkable of how many of the great men of the Bible it is said that they rose early, Abraham, Gideon, Joshua, Job, Jacob, Moses, etc., not to forget our Lord Jesus.

II. Samuel's Rebuke, vv. 13-19. It must have been a striking scene when the aged Nazarite prophet faced the proud but recreant king. A guilty conscience is often covered by a great show of plety (v. 13), but such acts cannot stifle the conviction of the heart nor deceive the righteous judge. Sin proclaims itself even as Samuel's sharp question brought conviction from the lips of Saul (v. 14; Prov. uel by using a falsehood (v. 15). The only safe course is to confess our sins (Ps. 32:15; I. John 1:9). There is an interesting suggestion in the way Saul uses the impersonal "they" and "we" in verse 15, as if to lay the guilt of his acts upon others. It is easy for the sinner to blame others and seek to minimize his own guilt (Rom. 14:12). Verse 9 clearly indicates why Saul and the people had spared the best of the cattle. To use a part only for God and the rest for self in direct disobedience to God's rights or the rights of others is to incur his righteous wrath (vv. 22, 23).

III. Saul's Self-Rejection, vv. 20-23. God set Saul aside because he had rejected the right and chose the wrong. Face to face with his sin Saul could not dodge the issue. Samuel's "wherefore" (v. 19) must have aroused Saul's guilty conscience. it is a question which should reach every tempted soul. Samuel characterized Saul's sin as being due to stubbornness, rebellion, disobedience and a refection of God (v. 19). Again Saul seeks to evade his responsibility (vv. 20, 21). Then Samuel speaks plainly (v. 22) comparing his sin of disobedience with witchcraft, stubbornness, iniquity and idolatry. Plainly he tells Saul, "Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king" (v. 23).

Driven thus to a corner Saul made confession of his guilt (v. 24) but spoiled it all by acknowledging that he had greater fear of the people than

This is Easter Sunday, our reproach has been removed, not at Gilgal but on Calvary. The unchanging God hates sin, which is unchangeable, has condemned it on the Cross that the guilty sinner may live. The persistence of sin, the unchangeableness of God and his unyielding hatred of sin are met by the culmination of Easter for, "By the obedience of one shall many be made righteous" (Rom. 5:19).

The whole root of Saul's trouble was his attitude towards the word of God. Every man's destiny hinges upon what he does with the Living Incarnate Word.

The resurrection of Jesus is the seal of his authority, the evidence of his power and our eternal salvation depends upon what we do with him,

MOUNTAIN AGRICULTURE

Conducted by Mr. Robert F. Spence, Farm Demonstrator and Special Investigator

CORN GROWING

Corn is capital, and when rightly deeper in the spring. invested in food for man and beast, In the spring harrow every half returns greater dividends than most day's plowing, to prevent clods. Fail any other farm crop.

Practically one-third of the area rough through the winter. of farm crops, and one-fifth of the lands should by all means be plowed improved farm lands of the United in the fall or winter. Disking be-States is devoted to corn. In many fore plowing conserves moisture and parts of the United States, a man's tends to prevent clods. standing in the community as a The Seed Bed farmer is rated by his ability and No amount of cultivation after achievements in corn production, planting can make up for neglect of food on the farm. Increased pro- harrow fall plowing at least twice more corn per acre. Growing often more. Mash all clods with fertilization and cultivation. The and destroy young weeds. greatest increase in yield must be expected from improved soil conditions.

half or two miles of Berea.

eat 113 bushels this year.

Selection of the Land

when rightly combined with ma- | bed is being prepared. nure and legumes, these insure real being required to make one pound live tested seed. Never import seed of dry matter.

then you are plowing eight inches. year's planting from your own plot. This plowing should be done in the fall or winter, unless a cover crop Plant as soon as ground is warm dling or clods will not occur. If the by May 10. land has not been broken to the above Local conditions, such as late seasdepth at any time in the past, in- ons, rainfall, cold soils, or the prescrease the depth of plowing grad- ence of a clover crop, sometimes ually, by plowing each time from delay the time of planting. two to four inches deeper in the |fall and from one to two inches

and winter plowing can be left

It is the greatest and surest source in preparing the seed bed. Disc and duction is easily secured by in- before planting. Spring plowing creasing the acreage or growing will need the same treatment, and more per acre is the more economic, some kind of drag or roller. Harwhen obtained by improved soil or row the land often enough before soil conditions, good seed, proper planting to keep it soft and moist

Fertilizers

The kind and quantity varies with soil characteristics and conditions. Don't forget the two boys, Lona Stable manure and turned-under article prepared for the Engineering Fish, and Gilbert Elkin, who pro- legumes stand first in value, and Record by J. E. Pennybacker, chief duced over 100 bushels of corn pet should be the source of nitrogen. of the division of road economics of acre last year within one and one- Phosphoric acid pays on almost all the United States office of public roads. soils, and potash on many, especial-We are proud of these boys. ly those that are light colored and They are again on the roll for corn sandy. From 250 to 300 pounds of growers this year. Their aim is to acid phosphate gives good results. Put 200 pounds in with fertilizer drill or wheat drill and 100 with 30 fair-sized volumes. In view of the Ideal soil for corn is well drained, your corn. Potash is not needed deep, loose loam, well supplied with very much in this part of Kentucky ject, this vast accumulation of statdecayed organic matter to hold therefore it's not necessary to dis- utes, according to Mr. Pennybacker, is moisture and plant food. This soil cuss it at this time. Potash is nec- a scathing commentary on the conis seldom found. Corn is being essary in some cases of course. If structive statesmanship of our legisgrown on a greater variety of agri- soil is deficient in nitrogen and no cultural soils than any other crop. manure or legumes are used, apply Many of these soils in this country 1:6 pounds of nitrate of soda broad- and that, entirely aside from the mat are too poor to grow corn profita- cast in the row when the corn is ter of reform, exactly the same purbly, but should first be built up-twelve to eighteen inches high. All poses contemplated in the existing leg-fertilizers except nitrate of soda islation could be accomplished with ently or profitably done by the use should be applied broadcast and har- greater effectiveness with one-eighth of commercial fertilizers alone, but towed into the soil when the seed of the existing statute laws.

Seed Corn

water is the determining factor in matures well in the local neighbor- based upon English precedent, extendcorn production; 350 to 700 pounds hood should be planted. Use only corn for the main crop. If new seed is necessary, get it from some neigh-Break corn land eight inches deep. bor. When starting with a new the bewildering confusion of existing When you think you are plowing variety, get only enough for a small legislation, the compilers came across eight inches, let your plow go down plot. If the variety proves success- in the statutes of one of our most pro-

Time to Plant

is grown. Always grow a cover enough for prompt germination, and become acquainted with the situation. crop if you can do so. If you plow not before. Early planting generalin the spring, plow at a time pud- ly gives best results. Aim to finish

(To be continued next week)

HENS WITH A LAYING AVERAGE tributors give each other practical sugof 144 EGGS PER YEAR

Fireside appears an interesting ac- One contributor tells as follows how count of three American egg-laying to kill rats: contests. In the following extract "Boil concentrated lye in a small appears a statement of some of the amont of water till it forms a thick numbered indirect taxes, as on salt, Connecticut with frequent periods rind spread the lye. Place the board when the mercury was far below so rats can easily find it. In attempt zero gave the contesting hens a ser- ing to get the rind the rats get the lye ious setback in their winter pro- on their feet. The lye will sting them duction. Many excellent records and they will lick it off and die from were made, but the aggregate of its effects. I have used this method eggs laid was considerably less than most successfully." otherwise would have been the ease. WHERE MAPLE SUGAR COMES The average production for the 820 hens (10 hens to the pen) was 144 Farm and Fireside says: eggs.

SO INTERESTING

titled, "Hempfield," presents a char- State for the values of its maple prod acter who comments as follows on

"My father always used to say ly the big things. I didn't use to ARE YOU AFRAID TO GO TO BED? think so; it used to hurt me to see him waste his life writing items about the visits of the the Backuses-you says Dad Millslagle, 'and I have to go know what visitors the Backuses are- to bed with myself every night. These and the big squashes raised by Jim two things have done a whole lot to Palmer, and the meetings of the Masons and the Odd Fellows; but I believe ARE YOU RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR he was successful with "The Star" because he packed it full of such little personal news.

"We are more interested in people we know, than in people we don't a dog which runs out upon the road know. We can't escape our own neigh- may be shot by people annoyed by his borhoods- and most of us don't want barking. The useful, well-behaved

HOGS DE LUXE

Farm and Fireside says:

"More than 25,000 hogs in one New Jersey county are fed entirely on hotel refuse obtained from New York City, Jersey City and Newark."

ANOTHER WAY TO KILL RATS

Fireside appears a department called quart, and carabao's milk for 15 the Headwork Shop, in which con- cents."

sestions which they have developed paste. Then take a bacon rind, tack "The unusually severe winter in to a wide board, and around the bacon

FROM.

"Little wonder that first-class maple WHY COUNTRY NEWSPAPERS ARE sugar and syrup are scarce. Only one tree is tapped for every five people in In the March American Magazine our population. Counting both sugar David Grayson, writing his story en- and syrup, New York is the leading ucts, Oblo is second and Vermont the work of a country newspaer ed- third. But Vermont is far in the the country. lead for maple sugar alone. The maple products of the country are that the little things of life are real- worth over five million dollars a year Farm and Fieside says:

"I'd hate to sleep with a scoundrel, keep me on the right path."

DOG

"A dog is property in Nebraska, and his owner is personally responsible for any damage he may do. In Nebraska now. dog will not be affected by such laws, and wise dog owners will agitate for

MILK IN THE PHILIPPINES

Farm and Fireside says:

such laws."

"Milk in the Philippines (except Manfla) is obtained mostly from goats and carabaos. A good carabao gives gallon of milk a day. In Manila In the current issue of Farm and cows' milk sells for about 20 cents a

UNRAVEL ROAD LEGISLATION

Joint Committee Working to Bring About Simplicity, Efficiency and Uniformity of Laws.

To bring about revision of stateroad laws along lines that will insure simplicity, efficient management, and, where desirable, uniformity, is the task undertaken by a special joint committee appointed at the third American road congress and representing the American Bar association and the American Highway association. The magnitude, intricacy and political and technical difficulties of the undertaking are discussed in an

Between three and four million words comprise existing road legislation in the several states, according to the estimate of officials in the office of public roads. This great wilderness of words would make up an edition of comparative simplicity of the sublators for many generations. There is scarcely a doubt that at least 85 per cent of the legislation is superfluous

The compilers have found legisla tion still in effect almost identical as to form and substance with the old After the condition of the soil, Any pure variety that yields and colonial road laws, which were in turn beth; they have found statutes so hopelessly in conflict as to make efficient and responsible administration utterly impossible. As an example of from three to four inches deeper, ful, seed can be selected for next gressive states a recent enactment pealed two years before the amendment was passed, and yet apparently none of the legislators have thus far

ROAD TAX PLAN IN FRANCE

Larger Part of Fund Levied on Rubber-Tired Traffic Goes for Expense of Administration.

Road taxes, as assessed in France. go to the road building and repair fund, but not all wheel taxes are expended on roads; the larger part of the fund of 15,000,000 francs a year out of their own experience as farmers levied on rubber-tired traffic goes for the expenses of administration.

There are four direct taxes which every Frenchman pays (besides unmatches, advertisement posters, the ater tickets, rallway tickets, checks, and what not): the tax on landed property, the tax on personal house property, the tax on doors and windows and the tax on industrial and commercial enterprises. In addition there are five centimes added for the benefit of the road fund and an additional three centimes levied by the municipalities for the upkeep of city streets. These diminutives, five cen times being but one cent and three centimes being but little more than half a cent, are added to every franc (20 cents) of tax. In the aggregate they furnish the millions which are spent on roads of France annually. More than $20,000,000 are spent each year to maintain approximately 400,-000 miles of national, departmental and communal highways throughout

Furnish Fresh Air.

Don't shut the coops up when the cold nights come, but leave them open in front so that they will not be drafty, but will be cool and airy and prevent sweating when the growing chicks crowd in at night.

Green Feed for Fowls. Spade up a part of the poultry yard and sow it to some quick-growing legume, confining the fowls in the other part. When the crop is well started, change the fowls over to it and plow up the other side. Do it

Weed Out the Drones. As the young pullets grow up, weed out every single one that seems to be weak or in any way defective. Save only the brightest, the most lively and the best-shaped birds.

exall Will Relieve Your Indigestion

Porter-Moore Drug Co., Inc.

Fall In Line For Cleanup Day

THEY'RE ON THE JOB-ARE YOU?

Wrong Diagnosis.

Doc - You need relaxation. stretching out on the flat of your back. The Man-I've been on the flat of my back for the last six months, ever since I bought that new car .- Washington Star.

They Change Quickly.

"Doesn't she the latest dress in style?" "She did up to yesterday afternoon."

FOR FATERIOR AND INTERIOR USE

Mana Parmi Meg Co. Columbos Oh

job.

San Francisca Chroniel

Main Point.

Teacher-George Washington threw silver dollar across the Rappahan

Johnnie (sighing) - Well, probably somebody a found it before now .- New York Globe

Booker, the Agent-1 suppose you'll have your wife for your partner in Mugger-She can't do it. Every time we get together she does nothing but a monologue.--Chicago News.

Bad if He Couldn't Kick. Church-How is your gout? Gotham -Oh, I can't kick. Church-Oh, is it as bad as that?-Yonkers Statesman

In buying Hanna's

formula :

Dutaide White

Green Seal Paints you are not asked simply to rely on its twenty-five years' reputation-the formula

In buying Green Seal you is printed on everypackage.

get a high grade, durable, lustrous paint-and the formula proves it. Have it used on your next painting

finishing the business sections by 6 by 9 a. m.

The advantages of the system are that the cleaning can be carried out by minimum.

walk, but must be kept on the householder's premises in such places as will not cause annoyance to the neighbors. As the street cleaning crews may be expected at a fixed time daily the householders are able to make their arrangements accordingly, and thus the whole proceeding is carried out in the most expeditious and convenient man-

Most Urgent Duty.

Perhaps the most urgent of the duties of the street cleaners is the removal from the streets of the carcasses of dead animals, not only on account of the unsightliness of such objects, but also because, especially in summer, they are a menace to health. Singularly enough, in many American cities, including these constantly exploiting their civic improvement plans, there is a lack of co-operation between the police, to whose notice such matters naturally first fall, and the street cleaning departments, so that the carcasses remain often for days before being re-

It would certainly seem a necessary preliminary to street planning to have he streets free of such impediments. Street cleaning machinery consists principally of three classes—sprinkling, sweeping and removing apparatus.

"I understand you are stuck on my new book." "Yes, I bought one."— Philadelphia Ledger.

For Sale by J. D. CLARKSTON, Berea, Kentucky

EXPERT TALKS ON CLEANUP WORK

Says German Cities Provide Model For Americans.

STREET CLEANING SCIENCE.

No Refuse Should Be Placed on Sidewalk-The Sweeping Process Should Be Started When No Traffic Is on Street-Early Morning Best Time.

By FRANK KOESTER.

The lack of system and want of technical training on the part of many American officials in charge make street cleaning unnecessarily expensive, leave the streets in a bad condition and cause the cleaning to be carried out in a disagreeable, insanitary way.

In foreign cities engineers specialize on this subject. Street cleaning has been reduced to a science, and economy, efficiency and the comfort and convenience of the public are considered.

The purpose of street cleaning is to remove as quickly and as cheaply as possible all foreign matter in the streets and thus to conduce to the health of the public by minimizing the circulation of germ laden dust.

The cleaning of streets should be carried out in a systematic and thorough manner. The cleaners should proceed in crews with the necessary apparatus both to clean the streets and the sidewalks as well, if necessary, and the layout of the work should be such that no member of the crew needs to wait on the progress of the other, but all proceed simultaneously, and when they have passed through the street the work will be done. The method of plecemeal street cleaning, with the householder sweeping dirt into the street, the street cleaner sweeping it into piles and the piles being removed by wagons, with the occasional passing first on one side of the street and then on the other of some piece of street cleaning apparatus, results in a continual stirring up of dust to the great discomfort and inconvenience of all concerned, while the street never really gets cleaned.

The number of men in the cleaning crew depends on the kind of machinery As no machine is capable of reaching all parts of the street, a certain amount of manual sweeping is necessary, especially when the sidewalks are cleaned in conjunction with the machine sweeping, so that, as indicated. the whole width of the street will be cleaned at once.

Must Be Clear of Traffic.

In order that such cleaning may proceed with efficiency and dispatch, and consequently with economy, the streets must be practically clear of traffic, as the presence of vehicles, especially those standing at the curb, greatly delays the work of the crew.

As the operation of such a crew also handicaps traffic and as the public prefers to see the streets clean, rather than to see them being cleaned, it is essential to select a suitable hour for cleaning. German cities have conducted numerous tests for finding out the most favorable hour. The city of Dres den adopted the practice of cleaning the main streets in the early morning hours, beginning about 4 o'clock and o'clock, some 20 to 30 per cent of the entire street area. The cleaning of the remainder of the streets proceeds immediately after the main streets are finished, and the whole city is cleaned The Early Morning Plan.

daylight and is consequently better performed than when carried out under artificial light, that the workmen are more efficient as day workers than as night workers, and that during the early morning hours the traffic is at the No refuse may be placed on the side-

LOCAL PAGE

NEWS OF BEREA AND VICINITY, GATHERED FROM A VARIETY OF SOURCES

BRECK & EVANS RICHMOND, KY. FIRE, LIFE, ACCIDENT,

AND LIVE STOCK INSURANCE See the New Life Policy.

THE CREECH STUDIO

Is the place to get your pictures made. We guarantee our work.

Main St., over Richardsons Store

Residence Phones 141 & 168

Drs. B. F. & M. M. Robinson

Office Hours, 8 to 12 a. m., 1 to 4:30 p. m. Office, Berea Bank & Trust Building, Berea, Ky.

Dr. D. R. Botkin PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON Office Hours, 8 to 11 a. m., 2 to 4 p. m. Office, Berea National Bank Building, Berea, Ky.

H. L. McMURRY, Attorney-at-Law Office over Engle's Store, Berea, Ky.

LAW OFFICE

DON'T FAIL

To see Marcum's new line of goods, consisting of Cut Glass, Diamonds, Watches and Novelties of all kinds at popular prices. Next door to Clarkstons.

L. & N. TIME TABLE

North Bound, Local 7:00 a. m. 10:55 p. m. 1:07 p. m. 3:54 a. m. BEREA 6:15 p. m. 7:45 a. m. Cincinnati South Bound, Local

12:37 p. m. 12:25 a. m. friends. BEREA 7:00 p. m. 5:50 a. m. Knoxville Express Train

No 33 will stop to take on passengers for Knoxville and points beyond. South Bound 8:00 a. m. BEREA 11:45 a. m.

No. 32 will stop at Berea to take on passengers for Cincinnati, O., and points beyond.

North Bound BEREA 4:55 p. m. 8:50 p. m. Cincinnati

15 LADIES WANTED to win 15 gold watches for 15 yearly subscriptions each for THE CITIZEN. You can't get a good watch easier.

Miss Edith Frost visited with her parents the first of the week.

75 BOYS WANTED to win 75 bicycles for 75 yearly subscriptions each for THE CITIZEN. Call or write for particulars.

Chester Gabbard, who has been attending the Louisville Dental College this year returned home Mon-

Mrs. D. W. Brown underwent an operation for appendicitis last nesday for Canada. Thursday at the College Hospital. She is doing nicely now. Mrs. John Howard, who under- atives and friends.

went an operation for appendicitis and 3rd. Mrs. Laura Jones, Berea, here.

ad-39 The Priscilla Club met at the home March 25th. The program was: Cuba's Industries, Mrs. Bower; Mrs. Wertenberger a talk on Chile. The program was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Less Adams gave a large turkey dinner Thursday evening at six o'clock. The table was set for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, Misses Boatright, Marie Bower and Hilda Welch, Messrs. Charl and Cied Dunn, Jim Adams and Jim Hockey of Richmond.

600 BOYS WANTED to win 600 baseball outfits for 6 yearly subscriptions each for THE CITIZEN. Call or write and line up.

The pie supper given at the west end school house was very successful. Proceeds amounted to eight dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Engle have moved from Chestnut street to Boone street.

Mrs. L. Wyatt spent Friday in Wallaceton with friends and rela-

Mrs. J. H. Jackson spent a few days 6:40 a. m. 8:15 p. m. in Speedwell with her relatives and Don't forget the hour of the great

Semi-Centennial Peace Celebration, on the night of April 9th. Any who should be a minute late will lose something. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duncan and sons, Russel and Jack, returned Wednesday from a visit with relatives and friends in Speedwell. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyatt of Winchester spent week end with his mother, Mrs. L. Wyatt. V. Steenrod left Wednesday for Boston, Mass., on business.

Don't forget our Millinery Opening April 2nd and 3rd. Miss Laura Taylor, out of Richmond millinery, trimmer. The best hats at lowest Cincinnati, O., where she will join students from Leslie County at his inum Cooking Utensil Co., New Kenner party, Saturday, the following prices ever sold in Berea. Come and her husband Mr. Lewis, who is in home last Monday evening. prove it. Mrs. Laura Jones. ad. school there.

We have four gold watches to be given to the Boosters or to persons who are not Boosters. They will be given during the next sixteen weeks in the following way.

One watch will be given at the end of each four consecutive weeks after the count on Monday, April 5th, to any individual who casts the most Boosters Coupons during the period of four weeks. All coupons cast in these contests count on the Grand Prize for the best Booster in the Booster Club Campaign, but all Boosters start even in each watch contest of four weeks; thus each Booster, high or low in the club, has the same opportunity in each watch contest. Any individual having won a watch from the store will not be allowed to enter the following watch contests, neither may any member of the immediate family of a winner, nor a helper.

An individual who is not a Booster may enter these watch con. tests and coupons may be cast in the name of some Booster, in which case to get the credit, the coupons must be counted by us before they are put in the ballot box. However, these coupons collected by persons not Boosters must be cast all for one Booster. In case of a tie the premium will be sold at auction and the

The first Watch Contest is from Monday. April 5th, to Monday, May 3rd.

See the Poster at our store for big special offer in free Booster Coupons. Ask us about it.

One thousand coupons will be given ie Any Booster for music which will be rendered at our store from I o'clock P. M. to 4 P. M., Saturday, April 3rd.

Mrs. J. M. Early

THE BOOSTER STORE

"A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR EARNED"

Especially while attending school

STANIFER'S MIGHTY CLEARANCE SALE

Of men's clothing now in progress will save you many dollars on things most needed right now

Every student who is at all economical should call and see just what good clothing this sale presents. List your wants and come to-morrow. Just see what we can do for you.

J. S. STANIFER

Mrs. Alice Cook has returned from

Oscar Johnston, who is employed Gordon Poteat of Greenville, S. C., several weeks ago is doing nicely. in Paris, as a brakeman for the L. traveling secretary for the student MILLINERY OPENING, April 2nd & N. spent week's end with relatives volunteer movement, was in town

> Did you ever hear a camp song, night of April 9th. Be there any- work. way; you will want to renew old memories.

Mr. and Mrs. David Roebuck are visiting his relatives in Ohio.

Miss Burgess' Sunday School class er. entertained a number of their young men friends, Friday evening in Mrs. ed his sister, Etta, of the College De-Roberts' class room in the Union

A part of the addresses, at the day.

Centennial of Robt. E. Lee's surrender of his army to Gen. U. S.

Miss Amy Todd has been real sick

but is better now. Mrs. Sarah Haley took Miss Todd's place in the Berea

Don't forget to give your order

Mr. Everett Adams, who is clerk

Miss Alza Hayes, who has been proud parents of a fine baby boy,

Harold VanWinkle of Cincinnati,

The old Fee place, where Profes-

We always like to hear the College

Miss Elizabeth Terrill of Richmond was in town Friday on busi-

Miss Stella Bicknell, who is em-

All the music and all the short

Albert Scrugg and W. H. Brana-ents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bicknell, last Spink.

ployed in Richmond, visited her par-who came Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scrivner.

front of building.

fifty years ago.

tie and inspiring.

el the place.

National Bank.

friends.

WALL PAPER

Our new spring line

of wall paper is now here and ready for your inspection

COME AND SEE US

Carlo C. Coyle and sons left Wed- J. J. Moore has been ill, but is now improving.

Mr. Burns was in Lima, O., last of a pleasant visit in Wildie with rel- week on business and has now returned.

Tuesday.

hiss Fannie Dowden of Paint Lick by an old soldier of fifty years ago? is helping in the Printng Office this of Mrs. W. C. Hunt on Jackson street, If not, be af the College Chapel the week during the extra rush of Doctor Best spent several days in Cincinnati the first of the week.

Miss Bowersox was called home last week by the illness of her mothpartment Saturday and Sunday.

Warren Keith of the College De-

If you stay away you will wish

Will W. Hanson and daughter, made a flying trip to our town, arriving Tuesday and leaving Wednesday of this week. His many friends

Profesor Henry of Georgetown Un-bors. He gave an interesting and helping address at the College De-

Conn Asher of Livingston made a

GOOD COW FOR SALE

A good milker at a bargain. M. L.

If You

business trip to Berea Thursday.

better.

hirthday.

7:30 p.m., April 9th!

in the post office of Lexington, spent you had been there. "Where," do week's end here with his many you ask? Why, at the College Chapel, week end with her sister, Mrs. J. urday and Sunday with his parents, sor Robertson now lives, is being im-were made glad on account of this proved by adding a new porch to the wisit.

band. They will do their "prettiest," iversity, at Georgetown, is spending at the very opening of the exercises, a week studying the systems of Bein the College Chapel, April 9th, to rea College. We are always glad to commemorate the close of the war, make the acquaintance of our neigh-

J. H. Jackson spent week end with partment Chapel on Tuesday morn-

EASTER MILLINERY

Richmond, Kentucky

Don't put off the purchase of your hat until it's too late to get it. Easter should find you with some kind of a new hat to celebrate the festal season properly. Our stock just at this time particularly attractive and interesting. We show all the latest models in millinery, and we think we can please you, if you give us a chance. Just a word about prices. We can Just a word about prices we can promise you a saving by giving us your trade.

fish's

Cor. Main & Center Sts.

Berea, Kentucky

THE OLD RELIABLE MEAT MARKET AND GROCERY

White Clover and Evergreen Brand of Canned Goods, J. E. M., Zaring's, Potts' and Blue Grass Queen Flour, Meal, Mill Feed, Crushed Corn.

JOE W. STEPHENS

Main Street

The colored district school is be- The Berea, School Board met Friing greatly benefited by the stories day evening and re-elected all the told by Miss Childs, who is spending present teachers for next year. The the winter in Berea. The morals principalship was left open till a brought out in them are making later date. lasting impressions on the children We are having a great time at the for truthfulness and kindness to BOOSTER STORE. You ought to each other.

Mich., is visiting her sister, Maude, town Saturday on business and of the collegiate department this planning for the future of his farm week.

H. A. Wilder and the Misses E. E. Ab Golden purchased a new Ford Hunt and H. W. May of Newton, machine from Bob Maupin Wednes-Mass., who had been visiting in Be- day and has joined the ranks of lorea several days, left Monday.

sington, Pa., revisited Berea the first guests: The Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Roland A. Nichols of Hiram, O., of the week,

Frank Ray returned from Lexing- representative of the Coit Lyceum W. W. Blackburn, B. N. Hanson, Bureau of Cleveland was here Sun- C. S. Metcalfe, T. M. Gibson and P. J. Clements, composing a party from The Misses Edith M. Barley and Dry Ridge, were Tavern visitors Grant, will be given by ladies. April ited Miss Bernice Chase of the Col-

Madge E. Chase of Detroit, Mich., vis- Tuesday. Miss Lillie Moore, a former head 9th is the date, and the College Chap-lege Department several days the nurse of the College Hospital, was here from Gray Hawk, Ky., last week for a short visit with her many partment left for his home-in Larue Misses Bettie Lewis and Irene County, Sunday, on account of sore Moffat spent Saturday and Sunday eyes, but will return to finish the with Miss Eva Lewis at Kingston. for Pure Maple Syrup to Canfield. term's work as soon as his eyes get friends.

E. G. Pugh was called to Cleveland last week on account of the illness of his brother.

The teachers of the Baptist Sunday School met for their weekly meeting, Friday night, at the home Order now for Decoration Day. of Mrs. Laura Gabbard on Forest teaching in Rockcastle County, spent Elizabeth, of Lexington, spent Satstreet.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bender, who Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Hanson on Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Davis are the Chestnut street. He came over to have purchased the Woolf property help celebrate his father's eightieth on Center street, are moving into it this week, and Ed. Scrivner and family are moving into the house va-Dwight L. Scoles of the class of cated by the Benders. O., spent Sunday with his wife and 1914 now in charge of the sciences baby, who are visiting her parents, of the schools of Monroe, Wisconsin,

FOR SALE-Baled hay and two Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woolf left at young mares. Apply to J. E. John- the first of the week for their new Ad-40 home in Winchester.

Berea, Ky.

join the club. Miss Mary Spencer of Jackson, S. P. Caudill of Conway was in interests, cal motorists.

Charles B. Converse, representa- Mr. and Mrs. Eli Baker delight-Mrs. Anna Lewis left Saturday for Prof. F. O. Clark entertained the tive of the New Kensington Alum-fully entertained at a six o'clock din-English, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woolf

(Continued on Page 5.)

Mrs. S. R. Baker, Berea, Kentucky,

Monuments and Headstones

When you buy from us you do not pay any agent's commission.

"The Quality Shop" Jno, Harwood, Mgr.

My!

Here is a chance to get FIVE SILVER DOLLARS for nothing. On Tuesday, June 1st, at 4 p. m., in my store I will give five silver dollars to some lucky customer of my goods. One ticket will be given with every cash 25-cent purchase. Those who run accounts will be given one ticket for every dollar when they settle.

Remember, we have the best beef and pork ever offered for sale in Berea.

Porterhouse 18 cts. Pork tenderloin 18 cts. Seed potatoes 80 cts. Onion sets, per qt. 10 cts. For any first class groceries call on or phone to

C. G. DEGMAN

Berea, Ky.

Phone 65

speeches at the Semi-Centennial cel-Dyspepsia Tablet ebration, April 9th, will be patrioman were in Louisville last week on

Hear Cable's Dramatic Recital Wednesday Night, April 7

THE CHECK

There is no better receipt than a paid check. It bears your signature and the endorsement of the payee, also the date of payment. It is also recorded on the books of the bank on which it is drawn and your Banker will be glad to look it up for you should the check be lost.

We invite checking accounts

Berea Bank & Trust Co.

Main Street, Berea, Kentucky

THIS GRAND UP-RIGHT $350.00 PIANO

will be given absolutely free to the girl or lady receiving the greatest number of votes in the big contest now on at our SPECIAL: We give 1000 votes for each $1.00 purchase on Ladies' and Men's Suits, Cloaks and Overcoats.

RICHARDSON & COYLE

Main Street

Berea, Kentucky

LOCAL ITEMS

(Continued from Page Four.)

and the Rev. D. W. Brown. An enjoyable evening was spent.

The Priscilla Club gave a recep- and gave the alarm. tion at the home of Mrs. H. E. Taymoves to Winchester this week.

ed at the home of Mrs. Hanson on 18 or 19 years of age. Chestnut street Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. J. P. Bicknell Tuesday afterhave Mrs. Gardner, a member who Chicago, Ill., with his wife and three noon instead of Friday in order to noon for Cincinnati where he has of Professor Dodge then and on their secured a position.

Carlos Hedrick of Paint Lick visited friends in town Wednesday.

Wednesday and Thursday on busi-liam, went to Big Hill Wednesday tage by means of their conveyance. to see about lumber for building his house.

John Will Van Winkle, traveling salesman, spent Sunday with home folks on Richmond street.

AND DEPOT ROBBED

Two bold robbers held up operator Miss Frances Wyatt, former Be- 9:24 o'clock. There was a knock on societies gave open meetings last dollar and a half. The drunkenness rea student who learned the art of the window and when Mr. Ball came Saturday night in their respective that resulted was traced down by Think! Do!" weaving under Mrs. Ernberg, is ex- to the window, one of the robbers society rooms. The purpose of the Professor Hunt and Dean Clark. The After Mr. Spence's speech, Mr. benefit of the Salvation Army and throw up his hands. Keeping the ladies and other friends an oppor- Judge Isaacs and confessed. A war- which now lie dormant in Bereareceives many complimentary no- gun on him, the robber told him to tunity of seeing a regular meeting rant was issued for Williams. Town opportunities of becoming a great open the door. On opening the door as held each Saturday night. be interested to know that in furth- tor until the other robber came into program: erance of his preparation for foreign the office from the waiting-room. missionary service he has taken a They commanded Mr. Ball to open position with the Detroit Young the safe and ticket-case, but he Men's Christian Association, after could only open the ticket-case. some months work in Boston in con- One of the robbers then searched nection with the Association. He the case and found $32.70. A few may be addressed, in care of Y. M. minutes after the robbers left, Mr. Ball ran over to Engles Restaurant lor in honor of Mrs. Woolf, who dee, and did not have any of the Ernest Adams of Lexington visit-Richmond. They look to be about

SUCCESSFUL AUTO TRIP

Early in January C. B. Russell of leaves later in the week, with them. children passed through Berea en-Clinton Early left Monday after- They spent a few days in the home return last week. On this trip they have traveled more than four thousand miles over some bad mountain roads and winter John F. Dean was in Richmond country roads, which are not made for the auto.

They visited many interesting W. C. Haley and little son, Wil- places in the South to a great advan-Professor Dodge accompanied them as far as Lexington last Saturday.

> You will surely regret it if you don't get in on this big offer we are Normal squads. The Academy and making on our fine line of premiums.

Plus GOOD METHODS COURTESY AND FIRST CLASS SERVICE Attracts the Careful Business Man

The National seeks your business on its record

BEREA NATIONAL BANK

BEREA, KENTUCKY

College News

BEREA COLLEGE TRUSTEES

Last week a committee of trustees. consisting of Dr. A. E. Thomson of Lincoln Ridge, Ky., Professor Elmer A. Lyman of Ypsilanti, Mich., and John R. Rogers of New York City, met in Berea. They were here several days visiting classes and conferring with President Frost. The Rev. Dr. Wm. E. Barton of Chicago was intending to be present but was detained by illness and death of a grandchild, the little daughter of Charles Barton, who is a graduate of

Last Saturday Herbert A. Wilder of Boston, another trustee, stopped over on his way North from Georgia, with his daughter, Mrs. Kent, and his niece, Miss May, remaining over Sunday and Monday.

The bequest for the benefit of Berea College by the late Charles M. Hall of Buffalo, the inventor of the aluminum method, is so arranged that the Institution can receive no benefit under five years and no considerable amount under twenty years. The ultimate value will depend upon various investments which are more or less speculative, but is likely to exceed $100,000. Mr. Hall was a student of President Frost at Oberlin.

GREAT SPEAKER AND EDUCATOR Visit of President Bryan of Colgate University

President Elmer B. Bryan, of Colgate University, spent Sunday and Monday with his daughter, who is a teacher in Berea College, and spoke jous teams are working hard getting night.

Dr. Bryan is one of the eminent educators of our day. He is a native of Ohio, was formerly connected pine Islands.

hoped that he can come again and Vocational Department. ° NIGHT OPERATOR BALL HELD UP give a course of five or six lectures.

OPEN MEETINGS

Dialogue	James Hillman
	Arleigh Griffia
Dialogue	Estylle Hanson
	Lloyd Biggerstaff
Reading	Carrol Batson
Monologue	Ray St. Clair
Violin Solo	Estylle Hanson
The Alpha Z	eta Society entertained in Alpha	Zeta Hall as follows:

Welcome Address Veo Douglas Solo Walter Heckman pose for man. A. Z. SquawkerDorral Flint Debate:-Messrs. Charles Lark, of the Resurrection. Robert Templeton, Judson Har-rold and Glarence Harrold.

ing program: Oration Eugene Houk Debate:-Messrs. Joe Van Hook, Christ." Oscar Robinson, Elmer Dixon, John Napier, Harl Tate and

VARSITY vs. NORMAL

Fallen Campbell.

Monday afternoon the last basket ball game of the season was played Normal had planned to play at this time for the season's championship but the game was called off.

The score stood 12 to 12 of their school advantages. when the first half was called.

score was 27 to 16 in the Varsity's School. favor.

A good-sized crowd witnessed the game and an admission fee of ten cents was charged, the money being used to help defray the expenses of material and the captains of the var- be a small admission fee.

Studebaker Wagons

Studebaker Buggies

Oliver Plows and Cultivators Malleable Ranges

> V. C. and Globe Fertilizers Wall Paper and Roofing

> > AT

R. H. CHRISMAN'S

"The Furniture Man"

Kentucky Berea,

to the United Chapel Sunday night, their men in shape. We may safely and to a select audience, the faculty depend on seeing an interesting cording to appointment at the on vital farm problems. and advanced students, on Monday series of games between the depart- Disciple Church Monday evening.

BOOTLEGGER COOPED

with educational institutions in the has been engaged in the pressing a lengthy but nevertheless stirring if you stay away, Mr. Farmer, you West and for a time was Superin- business over the tin shop of Henry appeal to the league members to are the greatest loser. tendent of Education in the Philip- Lengfellner was run down for boot- wake up to the many opportunities Our farmers in and around Berea legging (which also became a press- around them for improving Berea, if have been cooperating with their Colgate University in New York ing business for him on last Mon-State is one of the strongest Baptist day, the 22nd.) He made a trip to double-faced policy of so many of stone shipped to Berea for $1.60 per Both of the addresses by Dr. Bryan whisky for his clients whom he had were listened to with rapt attention endeared to himself and his wares and greeted with applause. It is among some of the students of the neighbor's welfare on Sunday, and farmers (and tinner), will give away deal with him in their own way for selling liquor without federal license.

UNION CHURCH NEWS.

Invective Stanley Ault revelation of God's power and pur- known lawyer of Louisville, who Hindsdale Sanitarium, and one of the

The Union Literary Society met day in the Sunday School will be be based upon some phase of charin the Union Hall with the follow- of unusual interest. The ladies in acter building or influence. He of-Welcome AddressJ. J. Russell produce a most entertaining pro- ment; a first prize of $10.00 and a

A most interesting meeting of the Women's Missionary Association was three men—Messrs. Dean Slagle, Alwell attended last week. The topic fred Sides and John Asher—as con- J. Osborne. discussed was "Christian Courtesy."

The Women's Industrial will have judges. at the gym between the Varsity and its last session April 12th, a week from Monday next.

The first half of the game was "Doers of the Word." After the prayer, introduced the speakers in girls who are great musicians, in unusually interesting and the Norm- close of the sermon he urged upon turn. al men held their own very success- the young people to make the most

The second half was not so closely Mrs. Roberts has taken a traveling played as the first, the Varsity men library, supplied by Miss Corwin, taking the lead thruout. The final to Harts for the use of the Sunday

(Continued on page Eight.)

ORGAN RECITAL

Under the auspices of the Womthe athletic association for the year. en's Christian Association there will March 27, 1915, with quite a number The next thing in the order of ath- be an organ recital, April 12, 7:30 of very enthusiastic farmers and letics now is baseball, which prom- p.m. at the Parish House. Mr. Tay- students present. After the meeting ises to be the most interesting. All lor will preside at the organ and was called to order by the presithe departments have good baseball other friends will sing. There will dent, and the minutes of the pre-

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING

The meeting opened with prayer learn and become successful in by Mr. Bingham and a selection by scientific farm methods, are manithe orchestra.

Winchester for a fresh supply of the church-goers even in Berea of ton. then thru the week assuming an air a splendid galvanized chicken coop, On his return from market his of blind indifference to the need and every farmer is requested to burden was greater than he felt and want which surrounded them bring the wife and make this a valsafe to land with in Berea and he on every side and which they might uable meeting. sold one quart to a student for a alleviate if they only would. His Gome farmers, come wives and hibiting her art in Cincinnati for the drew a gun on him and told him to meetings was to give the young student was taken before Police Degman spoke on the opportunities Marshall Watkins made the arrest industrial center. Mr. Degman a mile or more from town where voiced an excellent sentiment when est of Southern authors, Geo. W. ison, who graduated last year, will him. He kept his gun on the opera- in Phi Delta Hall with the following the boot-legger was seeking safety he urged the people of Berea to pa- Cable, will be given in College Chapel, He was tried in Squire Ramsay's phasized the fact that no town could Those who remember Mr. Cable's court, was found guilty and fined ever grow and become prosperous as visit four years ago will agree that fifty dollars and ten days in the long as the home-manufactured ar- in pure fun, real entertainment and ticles were all allowed to go out of genuine literary excellence, it was His case was also turned over to the town, because the local mer- the best thing ever heard in the (Continued on Page Eight.)

ORATORICAL CONTEST Shortly after the debate between the Alpha Zeta and Phi Delta literary societies which occurred earlier Sunday a. m. The resurrection a in the term, Mr. Burton, a well-The special services of Easter Sun- sentatives. The orations were all to there to hear." charge have taken special pains to fered two prizes, by way of induce-Music C. J. Davis gram. Seats will be at a premium. second prize of $5.00. A further An Easter sermon will be preach- the twelve men who appeared on and now offers for sale the gas second prize.

The contest was held Wednesday testants. Professors Peck, Robertson, and Lewis had been selected as

The speakers all acquitted them-

Dean Slagle and the second to Alfred Sides.

THE FARMERS MEETING

The Farmers Meeting, which is held in Berea on the last Saturday of each month, met last Saturday, vious meeting read by the secretary, a lively and very interesting The Berea Civic League met ac- discussion was entered into by many

The farmers who are wanting to festing a great deal of interest in Richard Williams (colored), who R. F. Spence officiated, and made these farmers meetings, consequently Meredith Gabbard, Secretary.

COMING! Best Thing This Year

A Dramatic Reading by the great-

the federal authorities, who will chants and residents would not pur- Chapel. Mr. Cable is an old man, fought in the Civil War, and cannot be heard many times more. Everybody must come. Admission only 25 cents. Students 15 cents.

DO YOU VALUE HEALTH AND GOOD SPEAKING?

Dr. Paulson, head of the famous served as one of the judges on that most wide-awake and awakening Sunday Night Upper Chapel. Proofs occasion, suggested that the two so- speakers in the world, will speak in cieties arrange for an oratorical College Chapel Sunday and Monday contest between their chosen repre- nights. Admission free. "May I be

ACTEYLENE GAS MACHINE FOR SALE

The Union Church has recently condition was imposed, that none of installed electricity in its building

This is a 75-light machine and is in excellent condition. Parties evening in the main chapel with interested will please call on the treasurer of the Church, Thomas

PIANO CLASS RECITAL At the home of Professor and

The orchestra played the opening Mrs. Edwards on Monday evening strains while the audience was occurred a very successful and engathering and then Professor Rum- tertaining recital participated in by Dr. Roberts preached at Harts old, who acted as chairman for the a few of the pupils of Mrs. Edwards Settlement last Sunday afternoon on evening, after offering a word of private music class. The little miniature, displayed much careful training on the part of their efficient selves well and are to be congratu- teacher. Their parents, who of course could not perform as they, The first honors were granted to sat by and enjoyed their efforts to entertain.

After the program, refreshments, after the heart of Secretary of State Bryan, were served which added greatly to the joys of the occasion.

"I Don't Feel Good"
is what a lot of people tell us ly their bowelsonly need cleansing ill do the trick and make you feel fin We know this positively. Take on

ht. Sold only by us, 10 ce Porter-Moore Drug Co., Inc.

Author of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"

CHAPTER VI.

"What dreams may come." UPPER was over and the work done at last. The dishes washed, the beans put in soak, the hens shut up for the night, the milk strained and carried down cellar. Patty went up to her little room with the one window and the slanting walls. and Waitstill followed and said good night. Her father put out the lights. locked the doors and came up the creaking stairs. There was never any talk between the sisters before going to bed, save on nights when their father was late at the store, usually on Saturdays only, for the good talkers of the village, as well as the gossips and loafers, preferred any other place to swap stories than the bleak atmosphere provided by old Foxy at his place of business. Patty could think in the dark. Her healthy young body lying not uncomfortably on the bed of corn husks, and the patchwork comforter drawn up under her chin, she could think, but for the first time she could not tell her thoughts to Waitstill. She had a secret, a dazzling secret, just like Ellen Wilson and some of the other girls who were several years older. Her afternoon's experience loomed as large in her innocent mind as if it had been an elopement.

"I hope I'm not engaged to be married to him, even if he did"- The sentence was too tremendous to be finished even in thought. "I don't think I can be. Men must surely say something and not take it for granted you are in love with them and want to marry them. It is what they say when they ask that I should like, much better than being married, when I'm only jus; past seventeen. I wish Mark was . li tle different. I don't like his careless ways! He admires me, I can tell that by the way he looks, but he admires himself just as much and expects me to do the same. Still, I suppose none of them are perfect, and girls have to forgive lots of little things when they are engaged. Mother must have forgiven a good many things when she took father. Any way. Mark is going away for a month up my mind just yet!" Here sleep descended upon the slightly puzzled, but on the whole delightfully complacent little creature, bringing her most alluring and untrustworthy dreams.

The dear Innocent had indeed no need of haste. Young Mr. Marquis de Lafayette Wilson-Mark for short-was not in the least a gay deceiver or ruthless breaker of hearts, and so far as known no scalps of village beauties were hung to his belt. He was a likable, light weight young chap, as indolent and pleasure loving as the strict customs of the community would permit, and a kiss, in his mind, most certainly never would lead to the altas. else he had already been many times bridegroom. Miss Patience Baxter's maiden meditations and uncertainties and perplexities, therefore, were decidedly premature. She was a natural born, unconsciously artistic, highly expert and finished coquette. She was all this at seventeen, and Mark at twenty-four was by no means a match for her in this field of effort yet. But sometimes in getting her victim into the net the coquette loses her balance and falls in herself. There wasn't a bit of harm in Marquis de Lafayette, but he was extremely agile in keeping out of nets.

Waitstill was restless, too, that night, although she could not have told the reason. She opened her window at the back of the house and leaned out. The evening was mild, with a soft wind blowing. She could hear the full brook dashing through the edge of the wood lot and even the "kerchug" of an occasional bullfrog. There were great misty stars in the sky, but no moon.

There was no light in Aunt Abby Cole's kitchen, but a faint glimmer shone through the windows of Uncle Bart's joiner's shop, showing that the old man was either having an hour of peaceful contemplation with no companion but his pipe or that there might be a little group of privileged visitors. headed by Jed Morrill, busily discussing the affairs of the nation.

Waitstill felt troubled and anxious tonight, bruised by the little daily torments that lessened her courage but never wholly destroyed it. Any one who believed implicitly in heredity might have been puzzled, perhaps, to account for her. He might fantastically picture her as making herself out of her ancestors, using a free hand, picking and choosing what she liked best, with due care for the effect of combinations; selecting here and there and modifying, if advisable, a trait of Grandpa or Grandma Foxwell, of Great Uncle or Great Aunt Baxter; borrowing qualities lavishly from her own gentle born and gently bred mothand carefully avoiding her respected father's stock, except perhaps to take a dash of his pluck and an ounce of his persistence. Jed Morrill remarked of Deacon Baxter once, "When Old Foxy wants anything he'll wait till hell freezes over afore he'll give up." Waitstill had her father's firm chin, but there the likeness ended. The proud curve of her nostrils, the clear, well opened eye with its deep fringe of lashes, the earnest mouth, all these came from the mother who was little more than a dim memory.

Waitstill disdained any vague, dreary, colorless theory of life and its meaning. She had joined the church at fifteen, more or less because other girls did and the parson had persuaded her. but out of her hard life she had somehow framed a courageous philosophy that kept her erect and uncrushed, no matter how great her difficulties. She had no idea of bringing a poor, weak, draggled soul to her Maker at the last day, saying, "Here is all I have managed to save out of what you gave

Patty slept sweetly on the other side of the partition, the contemplation of her twopenny triumphs bringing a smile to her childish lips, but even so a good heart was there (still perhaps in the process of making), a quick wit, ready sympathy, natural charm; plenty, indeed, for the stronger sister to cherish, protect and hold precious, as she did with all her mind and soul. There had always been a passionate loyalty in Waitstill's affection, wherever it had been bestowed. Uncle Bart delighted in telling an instance of it that occurred when she was a child of Maine had just separated amicably from her mother. Massachusetts. and become an independent state. It was in the middle of March, but there was no snow on the ground and the village boys had built a bonfire on a plot of land near Uncle Bart's joiner's shop. There was a large gathering in celebration of the historic event and Waitstill crept down the hill with her homemade rag doll in her arms. She stood on the outskirts of the crowd, a silent, absorbed little figure clad in a shabby woolen coat, with a blue knit hood framing her rosy face. Deborah, her beloved, her only doll, was tightly clasped in her arms, for Debby, like her parent, had few pleasures and must not be denied so great a one as this. Suddenly one of the thoughtless young scamps in the group, wishing to create a new sensation and add to the general excitment, caught the doll from the child's arms and running forward with a wild warwhoop, flung it into the flames. Waitstill did not lose an instant. She gave a scream of anguish and without giving any warning of her intentions, probably without realizing them herself, she dashed through the little crowd into the bonfire and snatched her cherished offspring from the burning pile. The whole thing was over in the twinkling of an eye, for Uncle Bart was as quick as the child and dragged her out of the imminent danger with no worse harm done than a good scorching.

He led the little creature up the hill to explain matters and protect her from a scolding. She still held the doll against her heaving breast, saying, between the sobs: "I couldn't let my Debby burn up! I couldn't. Uncle Bart, she's got nobody but me! Is my cress scorched so much I can't wear it? You'll tell father how it was, Uncle Bart, won't you?"

Debby bore the marks of her adventure longer than her owner, for she had been longer in the fire, but stained and defaced as she was, she was never replaced and remained the only doll of Waitstill's childhood. At this very moment she lay softly and safely in a bureau drawer ready to be lifted out, some time, Waitstill fancied. and shown tenderly to Patty's chitaren. Of her own possible children she never thought. There was but one man in the world who could ever be the father of them, and she was separated from him by every obstacle that could divide two human beings.

. Village "aunts" and "uncles" were elected to that relationship by the common consent of the community, their fitness being established by great age, by decided individuality or eccentricity of character, by uncommon lovableness or by the possession of an abundant wit and humor. There was no formality about the thing. Certain women were always called "Aunt Sukle," or "Aunt Hitty," or what not. while certain men were distinguished as "Uncle Rish," or "Uncle Pel," without previous arrangement or the consent of the high contracting parties.

Such a couple were Cephas Cole's father and mother, Aunt Abby and Uncle Bart. Bartholomew Cole's trade was that of a joiner. As for Aunt Abby's, it can only be said that she made all trades her own by sovereign right of investigation, and what she did not know about her neighbor's occupations was unlikely to be discovered on this side of Jordan. One of the villagers declared that Aunt Abby and her neighbor, Mrs. Abel Day, had argued for an hour before they could make a bargain about the method of disseminating a certain important piece of news, theirs by exclusive right of discovery and prior possession. Mrs. Day offered to give Mrs. Cole the privilege of Saco hill and Aunt Betty Jack's, she herself to take Guide Board and Town House hills. Aunt Abby quickly proved the injustice of this decision, saying that there were twice as many families living in Mrs. Day's chosen territory as there were in that allotted to her, so the river road to Milliken's mills was grudgingly awarded to Aunt Abby by way of compromise, and the ladies started on what was a tour of mercy in those days-the furnishing of a subject of discussion for long, quiet evenings.

Uncle Bart's joiner's shop was at the foot of Guide Board hill on the Riverboro side of the bridge, and it was the pleasantest spot in the whole village. The shop itself had a cheery look, with its weather stained shingles, its small square windows and its hospitable door, half as big as the front side of the building. The step was an old millstone too worn for active service, and the piles of chips and shavings on each side of it had been there for so many years that sweet williams, clove pinks and purple phlox were growing in among them in the most irresponsible fashion, while a morning glory vine had crept up and curled around a long handled rake that had been standing against the front of the house since early spring. There was an air of cozy and amiable disorder about the place that would have invited friendly confabulation even had not Uncle Bart's white head, honest, ruddy face and smiling welcome coaxed you in be fore you were aware. A fine Nodhead apple tree shaded the side windows, and underneath it reposed all summer a bright blue sleigh, for Uncle Bart always described himself as being "plagued for shed room" and kept things as he liked at the shop, having a "p'ison neat" wife who did exactly the opposite at his house.

The seat of the sleigh was all white now with scattered fruit blossoms, and one of Waitstill's earliest remembrances was of going downhill with man's life and reason."

Patty toddling at her side, of Uncle Bart's lifting them into the sleigh and permitting them to sit there and eat the ripe red apples that had fallen from the tree. Uncle Bart's son, Cephas (Patty's secret adorer), was a painter by trade and kept his pots and ans and brushes in a little outhouse at the back, while Uncle Bart himself stood every day behind his long joiner's bench almost knee deep in shavings. How the children loved to play with the white, satiny rings, making them into necklaces, hanging them to their ears and weaving them into wreaths. Wonderful houses could always be built in the corner of the shop out of the little odds and ends and "nubbins" of white pine, and Uncle Bart was ever ready to cut or saw a special piece needed for some great purpose. The sound of the plane was sweet ausic in the old joiner's ears. "I don't hardly know how I'd 'a' made out if I'd had to work in a mill," he sate confidentially to Cephas. "The notes of a saw goin' all day, coupled with your mother's tongue mornin's an' evenin's, would 'a' been too much for my weak head. I'm a quiet man, Cephas, a man that needs a peaceful shop where he can get away from the comforts of home now and then without shirkin' his duty nor causin' gos-sip. If you should ever marry, Cephas-which don't look to me likely without you pick out a dif'rent girlI'd advise you not to keep your stock o' paints in the barn or the shed, for it's altogether too handy to the house and the women folks. Take my advice and have a place to yourself, even if it's a small one. A shop or a barn has saved many a man's life and reason, Cephas, for it's ag'in a woman's nature to have you underfoot in the house without hectorin' you. Choose a girl same 's you would a horse that you want to hitch up into a span; 't ain't every two that'll stan' together without kickin'. When you get the right girl keep out of her way consid'able an' there'll be less wear an'

(To be Continued)

A Double Deception

By EUNICE BLAKE

Estelle Auchincloss awoke at 11 o'clock in the morning with a sickening sensation. She had been out every night for a week at some function. slept the greater part of the day and at evening prepared for the next round

"Oh, how tired I am of it! I wish I were poor. I could then find something to occupy me. Being rich, I can't."

Miss Auchincloss lay in bed a long while thinking, then arose with a scheme she had resolved to put in practice. She wrote an advertisement that a young woman recently graduat ed from - cotlege would like a posttion as governess in a family living in the country. Within a week she had purchased a railroad ticket to Hilton to be inspected and was offered and accepted a situation under the name of Maria Bristow. Now, it happened that Jack Larrabee, the son of the lady who had engaged the governess, when the negotiations were in progress peeped through the half open door and recognized a person he had seen and admired as one of the most graceful dancers in the social world. He had never been presented to her and was sure that she did not know him.

"I think I know a trick worth two o' that." he said and got out of the way before the applicant had seen him.

There were in the Larrabee family, besides Jack, Mrs. Larrabee, a widow, and two little daughters. There was a chauffeur who sometimes acted as gardener. The morning after Miss Auchincloss entered upon her duties she saw a man in overalls outside preparing the flower beds for spring use. Being fond of flowers, she went out to ask him some questions as to what be was doing.

"I didn't know," she said, "that Mrs. Larrabee employed two men on the place. I supposed the chauffeur did the gardening."

So he does, miss, but this spring the missts has hired me." Miss Auchincloss asked a number of questions about what kind of flowers he was intending to put in, then returned to the house and soon after began work with the children at their

Now, Jack Larrabee, in order to play gardener without being given away, told his mother that he was tired of the social whirl and anxious to make a man of himself. He proposed to take the position of gardener for a gardener's pay, but he stipulated should do so incognito. His being a member of the family was not to be divulged. His sisters were not only charged not to give the secret away. but rewards were offered them if they refrained from doing so.

Occasionally the chauffeur was bribed by Jack to plead illness, and Jack took his place at the wheel. Jack also at times bribed his sisters when the time came for the afternoon ride to do something else, thus giving him an opportunity to make love to the governess.

It was not to be expected that this twofold deception could be kept up indefinitely, though Miss Auchincless had a better chance at the problem than Mr. Larrabee, she being some distance from home. Jack by incessant watchfulness kept the ball a-rolling for a month, though he met with a number of narrow escapes. He was disappointed, however, in not being able to break down the barrier that separated him from one who was supposed to be of a higher station. Miss Auchincloss, though evidently kindly disposed toward him, required him at all times to keep his distance.

One day when Jack was driving the governess in a runabout they met two of his friends, Ned Morgan and Chartie Phelps. A chauffeur's apparel is not necessarily much different from that of an ordinary person, and the young men thought little of seeing lack at the wheel

"Hold on, Jack!" cried one of them. 'I wish to speak to you.'

Jack put on more speed. His friends. one of whom had recognized the society belle, Miss Auchincloss, turned and followed. Seeing an opportunity by taking a different road to meet the couple again, they turned and by some rapid driving succeeded in their design. On meeting again they signaled Jack to stop and enforced his doing so by occupying his side of the road. I'helps greeted the governess with a hearty "Good morning. Miss Auchin-closs!" while Morgan apologized to Jack for stopping him on the ground that he had a message for him.

Jack looked at Miss Auchincioss, and Miss Auchincloss looked at Jack. but neither said anything till they had got rid of the two men. Then Jack said:

"My secret is out."
"It's been out for some time."
"What! You have known who

CELEBRATION IN GREEK COUNTRIES

Intense Fervor and Devotion Shown in Easter Ceremonies-Places of Pilgrimage Numerous.

N all the Greek orthodox countries— Russia, Roumania, Greece, Bulgaria, Servia, Montenegro, and a large part of Austria-Hungary-Easter is celebrated with great fervor and devotion The Easter kiss is a well-known incident of these celebrations. A curious story is told of Czar Nicholas II and the Easter kiss. On leaving his apartments one Easter morning he kissed the guard outside with the usual salutation, "Christ is risen," to which the response is, "He is truly risen." But the man answered, coolly, "He is not risen." The emperor was aghast, and shouted, furiously, "He is risen!" But the man, with the utmost composure, repeated his denial. He was a Jew! Only the emperor's sense of humor saved him.

Russia, as the premier Greek Ortho dox nation, is very much in evidence in the Holy Land, and of late years has asserted her supremacy in the Christendom of the Orient in many waysnot only by generous contributions in magnificent buildings and financially, but also politically in strengthening the position of the Greek church. Especially at Easter it is interesting to observe the contrasts which take on a certain political hue between Latins, Greeks, Protestants and Gregorians (Armenians).

Protestant religious activity in Jerusalem, which at one time was largely English, has of late years been much strengthened by the influx of German colonists, especially Suabians.

Away from the ecclesiastical ceremonial the pilgrim in Easter time seeks the traditional places where our Lord spent his last days and nights. Of these Gethsemane is the principal goal, and here the difference in creed among the many visitors is obliterated by an earnest and quiet devotion which is unexpectedly free from the emotional.

Another figure has a prominent place in Easter celebrations in Jerusalem; that of Moses, whose liberation of the Jewish people from the yoke of Egypt is commemorated in the ancient Hebrew paschal feast. But it is not the Passover celebrated by the various Jewish colonies of Palestinethe older Spanish-speaking, the Turkspeaking people from Bokhara and other central Asiatic regions, the Arabic-speaking Jews from Yemen, and the Polish, Russian and German Jews of Yiddish tongue. It is not the Jewish Passover that is the most remarkable celebration in honor of the great leader and the Exodus.

There is a very little known Mohammedan celebration which, though no longer so general as formerly, is still a most interesting one. To the Mohammedan, it must be remembered. Jerusalem is a holy city, like Mecca and Medina, and there is a saying among Arabs, "Syria is the blessed country, Palestine the holy land, and

"Ever since I came to the house fon may have forgotten that I danced n the same figure with you at Mrs. Perkins' cotifiion."

"I recognized you, but I fancied that you didn't remember me

"Well," rejoined Miss Auchincloss. "my playing governess and your playing gardener are fluished I think we had better return to our own selves" "I am of your opinion There is too much work for the wages

But Jack prevailed upon her to defer her going for awhile tonger, which gave him further opportunity to do his courting, and when she left they were engaged.

What the Maid Wanted to Know,

One of our leading actresses was engaging a maid and impressed upon her the necessity of not discussing out of doors what she heard said indoors. "There wasn't a single thing said in this house that wasn't gossiped over by my last maid," added the actress. "Now do you think you can keep your tongue still?" The would be maid was thoughtful for a minute, then pled out, "Please, madam, is there much to conceal?"

One For the Minister.

An old minister in the south side of Glasgow who was noted for his habit of dishing up old sermons again and again was one day advertised to preach in a suburban church at the anniversary service there. An old woman who in days gone by had sat under his ministry, but who had now removed from his neighborhood, determined to go in and hear him preach on this particular occasion. After the close of the service she waited on the clergyman, who greeted her cordially and asked what she thought of his discourse. "Eh, mon," she replied candidly, "it's a lang time sin' I first heard ye preach that yin, sir, and I've heard ye at it a guid wheen o' times sin'

"Aye, Janet," said the minister. "How often do ye think ye've heard it, na?" "Oh, aboot a dizzen o' times. sir," she replied. "An' div ye mind it a'?" said the minister. "Aweel, maybe no' it a', sir." "Weel, I see I'll need to preach it to ye again, Janet," said the minister, and Janet felt that she had been sold for once.

Jerusalem, the holy city, is the holy of holies. The tradition is that Ommi Selma, wife of the prophet, heard these words one day from Mohammed, "He who makes the pilgrimage from Jerusalem to Mecca will obtain forgiveness of sins, past and future, and will carn paradise."

There is a pilgrimage at Easter time which does not go quite as far from Jerusalem as Mecca, but whose goal is the burial place of Moses-Nebi Musa-between the city and the Dead sea. Although, according to Christian and Hebrew belief, the Lord buried Moses, and his grave is hidden from posterity, the Mohammedans regard a certain ruined sanctuary, some three or four hours' distance from Jerusalem, as covering the remains of the prophet.

In cosmopolitan charm Easter in Constantinople almost equals that in Jerusalem. The capital of the Turkish empire is, of course, in itself highly cosmopolitan, and there is no other city in the world where so many languages are heard in the streets, not by foreigners but by the variegated native population. The background here is not Jewish and Mohammedan, as in Jarusalem, but Mohammedan and Christvan, with a strong tinge of Spanish Jewry.

Of the native Christians the Greeks ore ominate, but there has always ben a very numerous Armenian element in Constantinople. The magnificent creek Orthodox ceremonial well reflects the towering strength of that church in the Levant, which for centuries, under the absolute rule of the Ottoman sultans, acted in the capacity, of imperial overseer of the (hristian peoples under Turkish sway. Until the comparatively recent rise of the Balkan nationalities-Roumanian, servian. Bulgarian. Montenegrin-Greek was the language of all cultured people of orthodox faith outside of Russia and Austria-Hungary. And Greek intellectual, social and political control through the unifying power of the Greek church was more complete ander Ottoman rule than it had been en der the Byzantine emperors.

Recent events have once more shown the force of the people of Greek speech. Through the breaking away of the Bulgarian church and the erection of a Bulgarian exarchate, Greek in religion, but Bulgarian in speech and political aims, it had been temporarily weakened.

Got There Strong.

"My dear, these are very strong cl gars you bought for me."

"Well, the man asked if I wanted 'em strong. Naturally I thought you would prefer something strong and durable. But that's just like a man. Next time I'll get 'em weak and see if that will suit you."-Louisville Conrier-Journal.

Yet It Cured Him.

An amusing story is told of a man who was suddenly attacked in the night by a violent fit of earache. His wife told him that there was on the window sill by the bed a bottle of chloroform liniment and recommended him to rub some on his face. Without striking a light he reached out for the bottle, pulled out the stopper, and pouring some of the contents into his hand, anointed his face from mouth to ear. Very soon he announced that the pain was better, lay down again and went to sleep. He was awakened in the morning by a cry of horror from his wife.

"What is the matter?" he inquired.

"Look at your face!" was the reply. A glance in the glass showed him that his face on one side was as black as a negro's. The bottle which he had grasped in the dark had contained not chloroform, but ink.

An Achievement. General Howard Carroll, captain of coastwise transportation industry, as a raconteur is somewhat negligent at times as to the vintage of the yarn spun. At a club gathering recently one of his stories had the good fortune to get a laugh at exactly the right place. "Bully," said the general. "I thought that yarn would go here. I told it for the first time last night at home, and when I'd got through my daughter looked at me admiringly and said:

"'Why, father, that was a new one!" "-New York Sun.

Delicate Children ally only need a food tonic to make m strong and healthy exall Olive Oil Emulsion ot only the best food tonic but is sant to take. Sold only by us. Porter-Moore Drug Co., Inc.

IN THE HOME

ROLL ON, SILVER MOON. As I strayed from my cot at the close of the day, 'Mid the ravishing beauties of

'Neath the jessamine shade I espied a fair maid, And she sadly complained to the moon.

Like the hart on the mountain, my lover was brave. So handsome, so manly and clever: So kind and sincere, and he loved me so dear.

Oh, Edwin, thine equal was never!

His grave I'll seek out until morning appears And weep o'er my love so brave: I'll embrace the cold turf and bathe with my tears The flowers that bloom o'er his grave. - Chins

CHORUS. Roll on, silver moon, guide the traveler on his way, While the nightingale's song is tune: Oh, I never, never more with my true love shall stray By the bright silver light of

BITS OF WISDOM.

Therefore well does Agathon say, "Of this alone is even God deprived, the power of making that which is past never to have been."-Aristotle.

There is, however, a limit at which forbearance ceases to be a virtue.-Burke.

This nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.-Abraham Lincoln.

In the lexicon of youth, which fate reserves for a bright manhood, there is no such word as fall.-Bulwer Lytton.

What is the best laxative? Years of experience in selling all kinds leads us to always recommend Rexall Orderlies as the safest, surest and most satisfactory. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

Porter-Moore Drug Co., Inc.

MEASURELESS

in nature-wasted winds, more than on his breast and he slept. enough to turn all wheels; wild waters, more than erough to redeem all in the sunlight, not yet corraled by ing turned to hairy green leaves. wealth and beauty, which are only riches; his power of atoning blood. and hid them among the leaves. of Pentecost in his bosom, more than enough-baskets full left after all are fed. The Heavenly Father gives from est breath. All who pick thee must Lis royal bounty like a king, more do so on bended knee." than we can ask or think, exceedingly As the maiden went on her way, sbundantly more, according to his riches which are in Christ Jesus. arbutus. Then let us ask and receive that we might be filled with the Holy Spirit's picked on bended knee, the blospower-Ihe Christian Herald.

If you have a flat roof take every mattress in the house up there once a week and leave them in the hot sun for several bours. They will then be fluffy and sweet smelling. It would be well for the pillows and bedding to receive the same treatment.

A mattress will be easier to handle if straps are attached to the sides, and for this purpose pieces of old suspenders are very satisfactory, or strips made from bed ticking. Sew the straps or handles on firmly, two on each side.

Potato Peeling Made Easy. Instead of peeling potatoes for steaming or boiling simply cut a narrow strip entirely around the center of each one. After being cooked, drained and dried in the ordinary way the potatoes slip easily from the skins when the opposite ends are pressed between the thumb and forefinger.

A Food and Nerve Tonic is frequently required by old age. exall Emulsion as an ideal combination for this purpose. Porter-Moore Drug Co., Inc.

AN INDIAN STORY OF THE ARBUTUS

An old, old man lived alone in a wigwam in the dark pine forest, his hair and beard were long and white as the snow that covered the earth. It was icy cold and the wind howled among the trees. The old man looked about for some pieces of wood to keep the fire burning in his wigwam, but he could find none. Ie prayed to the Great Spirit for help. Suddenly a beautiful maiden stood at the door of his wigwam. Her eyes were like the blue sky. Her cheeks were pink as the wild rose. Her hair was raven black and it touched the ground as she walked. The maiden's dress was made of grasses and ferns, and she wore shining white lilies for moccasins. When she breathed it was like the blowing of the warm south wind; it made the wigwam as warm as a summer day.

"My daughter," said the old man, "I am glad to see you here. Who are you, that you come so daintily dressed? Sit here beside me, and tell me of your country. I, in turn, will tell you of my brave deeds."

The maiden sat down, and the old man said, "I am Manito. I am allpowerful. I breathe, and the waters of the rivers are frozen fast."

"I breathe," said the maiden, "and the plain is covered with beautiful flowers."

"I shake my locks and the ground is white with snow," said the old

"I shake my curls," said the maiden, "and the clouds open, sending down warm rain for the waiting flowers."

"When I walk among the trees the leaves fall, the animals hide away in their holes, and the birds fly far to the south."

"When I walk about," the maiden said, "the flowers lift their heads, the trees put on new leaves, the birds sing, and the brook ripples over the stones."

So the two talked on until the old man grew sleepy from the warmth Think of God's overplus of power of the wigwam. His head dropped

The maiden waved her hands gently over his head. Little by little deserts. Think of the vast power he grew smaller. His somber cloth-

man; of the infinitude of material Then the Spring maiden, for she it was who had visited old Winter, symbols of his endless spiritual took dainty pink and white flowers

> She breathed on the little blossoms and said, "I give thee my sweet-

the ground behind was covered with

And to this day arbutus must be soms are so close to the ground.

The First Easter Dawn

Symbols of the Easter Time

Lilies sound His praises at the Easter-tide, Who from highest glory came to earth and died. Lo! a-dying, quite defying Satan's mighty power, Bands a-bursting, our Redeemer rises in His hour. Can a pulsing, freshening lily show aught else beside Happy, joyous welcome at the Easter-tide.

MISS THE VISION

Too Many Are Late in Seeing the Way Out From Darkness to the Light That Is Triumphant.

CAMPING party from the East A stepped from a belated train late one August afternoon at the station of a bleak little frontier town at the edge of the Black Hills, and looked anxiously at the shadows already lying long across the one street.

'Well, here's one day lost," grumbled a member of the party. "It will be night before everything is loaded and ready, and we can't start off in the

"Why not?" asked the guide. "Couldn't find the way."

"I know the way," returned the guide simply. "We'll start at eight." Night was swallowing the last dregs of daylight when eight o'clock came, and apprehension was lined into every face as the party climbed into the wagon and plunged into the dark mouth of the canyon, which opened abruptly into the town. The road hugged the canyon wall on one side; on the other rushed a noisy little mountain brook, its chatter softening gradually into a quiet murmur as the canyon road wound up the hillside, eaving it far behind in the depths

Dense darkness separated the travelers each from each. Stones dislodged by the scrambling boofs of the horses slid down into the canyon, measuring the narrow margin between safety and destruction. Hand gripped hand, and breath came short.

"It's like the valley of the shadow of death!" a voice shuddered out into the darkness.

The guide, directing his team in front, sensed an unspoken fear. "Just look up," he called hearteningly over his shoulder. A wedge of brilliant star-strewn sky seemed swung into the abyss, forcing the canyon walls apart and stretching a luminous canopy from crag to crag. The radiance transformed the valley, in the uplook, into a vision of glory. Up and up wound the road, nearer and nearer to that ever-widening arch of star-shot brightness, till the travelers at last stood safe upon the shining hillcrest, the dark hours of trembling bewilderment over and joy beyond.

They looked back silently, as far as the starlight revealed it, over the road up which they had come.

"I wouldn't have missed it for the world," one of the party finally broke the spell. "It would have been a tragedy to lose an experience like that."

And in that brief sentence she unconsciously summed up the one real tragedy of life—to miss the vision of the valley. The valley itself is not a tragedy to thinking people. For while men can still "just look up," and looking, realize that ahead lie fairer lands, to which they are surely bound, they are safe. It is "where there is no vision the people perish."

The road toward those fairer lands is the common, everyday road of hour-OF THE VALLEY is the common, everyday road of hourly living. It lies inevitably through the valleys, often through environing night. To travel it means weariness, bruised and trembling feet, groping hands, poignant pain, and a back look through a vista of disappointments and apparent failures.

But there is a way out. Centuries ago, on the day that we call Easter, a light broke into the darkened valleys, and the way shone forth for all who will "just look up." Now, since that Easter, we climb, not as slaves who endure because there is no escape, but with joy triumphant. For the assurance is ours that we shall thus rise with him into the light.

And so he bids us on this Easter day to accept our valleys, for they lead out into life; not alone beyond, but now. The sliding stones cannot plunge us over the brink, nor the threatening rocks crash down and crush out our lives. We have his word that because he lives we shall live also. Our feet are set securely upon the road, and we shall climb in safety up the vision-brightened way to the

It is into our night-dark valleys that the vision comes, for sunshine blots it out. The valley is by day a smiling thing, tempting to loitering among its trees and flowers, and to dreaming beside its singing brooks. So completely does it satisfy the senses that it may even become a lotus vale of forgetfulness, to lure the traveler from his sturdy purpose and beguile him into indifference to the way that leads to the plains of God. But presently night overtakes him. Then he rouses. With the shadows chill and heavy on his heart, he at last looks up and, beholding the star, begins his climb up toward the morning. Gethsemane and Golgotha lie along the way, but Easter breaks beyond. The vision has glorifled the vale.

And still Easter does not mean to us all that it should. It is a day of somewhat selfish rejoicing. We quicken to the new life of the spring, we make our hearthsides gay with fresh blossoms; our hearts echo the glad message of the bells. It is our joy, our peace, our brightness, our Easter.

But it was very different on that first Easter. If you will think back a moment you will recall the word of the angel to the women at the sepulcher-"He is risen—go tell his disciples." Now, as then, there are many to whom Easter has not come. They are dead to life, back there in the valley-little children defrauded of their birthright of joy; wemen exploited for gain; youth drawn into evil by the lure of false brightness. "That ye might have life" is the purpose of the Christ in his resurrection; and yet in that death valley they know nothing of life and light, they who are also a part of that all-inclusive "ye."

Before we can make our Easter truly his Easter we must first hearken to his message: "Go down into the valley and carry the vision to those who perish there. Make your joy their joy; your life their life; your safety their safety. Lead them up with you, into the light."

SIX DOORS

FOR ASPIRING YOUNG PEOPLE

1st Door—Berea's Vocational Schools

Training that adds to your money-earning power, combined with general education.

FOR YOUNG MEN-Agriculture, Carpentry, Bricklaving, Printing, Commerce and Telegraphy.
FOR YOUNG LADIES—Home Science, Dressmaking, Cooking,

Nursing, Stenography and Typewriting.

2nd Door—Berea's Foundation School

General Education for those not far advanced, combined with some vocational training. No matter what your present advancement, we can put you with others like yourself and give chance for most rapid progress.

3rd Door-Berea's General Academy Course

For those who are not expecting to teach and who are not going thru College, but desire more general education. This is just the thing for those preparing for medical studies or other professions without a college course. It also gives the best general education for those who wish a good start in study and expect to carry it on by themselves.

4th Door—Berea's Normal School

This gives the very best training for those who expect to teach. Courses are so arranged that young people can teach through the summer and fall and attend school through the winter and spring. thus earning money to keep right on in their course of study. Read Dinsmore's great book, "How to Teach a District School."

5th Door—Berea's Preparatory Academy Course

This is the straight road to College-best training in Mathematics, Sciences, Languages, History and all preparatory subjects. The Academy is now Berea's largest department.

6th Door—Berea College

This is the crown of the whole Institution, and provides standard courses in all advanced subjects.

Questions Answered

BEREA, FRIEND OF WORKING STUDENTS. Berea College with its affiliated schools, is not a money-making institution. It requires certain fees, but it expends many thousands of dollars each year for the benefit of its students, giving highest advantages at lowest cost, and arranging as far as possible for students to earn and save in every way.

OUR SCHOOL IS LIKE A FAMILY, with careful regulations to protect the character and reputation of the young people. Our students come from the best families and are earnest to do well and improve. For any who may be sick the College provides doctor and nurse without

All except those with parents in Berea live in College buildings, and many assist in work of boarding hall, farm and shops, receiving valuable training and getting pay according to the value of their labor. Except in winter it is expected that all will have a chance to earn a part of their expenses. Write to the Secretary before coming to secure employ-

PERSONAL EXPENSES for clothing, laundry, postage, books, etc., vary with different people. Berea favors plain clothing. Our climate is the best, but as students must attend classes regardless of the weather, warm wraps and underclothing, umbrellas and overshoes are necessary. THE CO-OPERATIVE STORE furnishes books, toilet articles, work uniforms, umbrellas and other necessary articles at cost.

LIVING EXPENSES are really below cost. The College asks no rent for the fine buildings in which students live, charging only enough room rent to pay for cleaning, repairs, fuel, lights, and washing of hedding and towels. For table board, without coffee or extras, $1.35 a week, in the fall, and $1.50 in winter; for furnished room, with fuel, lights, washing of bedding, 40 to 60 cents for each person.

SCHOOL FEES are two. First a "DOLLAR DEPOSIT," as guarantee for return of room key, library books, etc. This is paid but once, and is returned when the student departs.

Second an "INCIDENTAL FEE" to help on expenses for care of school buildings, hospital, library, etc. (Students pay nothing for tuition or service of teachers-all our instruction is Incidental Fee for most students is $5.00 a term; in Academy and Normal $6.00 and $7.00 in Collegiate course.

PAYMENT MUST BE IN ADVANCE, incidental fee and room rent by the term, board by the half term. Installments are as follows:

of the term, beard by the name terms
WINTER T	ERM	M = 47,428	1100
VOCATION	NAL AND	ACADEMY
FOUNDATION		AND NORMAL	COLLEGE
Incidental Fee	$ 5.00	$ 6.00	$ 7.00
Room	6.00	7.20	7.20
Board, 6 weeks	9.00	9.00	9.00
Amount due first of term	$20.00	$22.20	$23.20
Board 6 wks., due middle of term	9.00	9.00	9.00
the property of the state of th
Total for term	*$29.00	*$31.20	*$32.26
SPRING T	ERM
ncidental Fee	$ 5.00	$ 6.00	8 7.00
Room	4.00	5.00	5.00
Board, 5 weeks	6.75	6.75	6.75
Amount due first of term	$15.75	$17.75	818.75
Board, 5 weeks, due middle of ter	m 6.75	6.75	6.75
		-
Total for term	*$22.50	*$24.50	$25.56

*This does not include the dollar deposit nor money for books or

Special Expenses-Business. Winter Spring

Total

Stenography and Typewriting	$12.00	810.00	$36.0
Bookkeeping (brief course)	12.00	10.00	36.0
Bookkeeping (regular course)	6.00	5.00	18.0
Business course for students in other departments:
Stenography	9.00	7.50	27.0
Typewriting, with one hour's use of instrument	6.00	5.00	18.0
Com. Law, Com. Ceog., Com.
Arith., or Penmanship, each	1.80	1.50	5.4
In no case will special Rusiness Fees exceed !	815.00 per	r term.

Any able-bodied young man or young woman can get an education Berea if there is the will to do so.

It is a great advantage to continue during winter and spring and have a full year of continuous study. Many young people waste time in the public schools going over and over the same things, when they might be improving much faster by coming to Berea and starting in on new studies with some of the best young men and women from other counties and states.

Applicants must bring or send a testimonial showing that they are above 15 years old, in good health, and of good character. This may be signed by some former Berea student or some reliable teacher or neighbor. The use of tobacco is strictly forbidden,

Winter Term opened Jan. 6, 1915. Hurry up!

For information or friendly advice write to the Secretary,

MARSHALL E. VAUGHN, Berea, Ky

East Kentucky Correspondence News You Get Nowhere Else

correspondence published unless signed in full by the writer. The name not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. Write plainly.

ANNOUNCEMENT

WE are authorized to announce today. R. L. MOORE of Marion, Ky., as a candidate for office of Treasurer of at the August primary.

JACKSON COUNTY

court and summoning the boys be-fore the grand jury.—Claud Baker is done." lost a fine mule last week, worth $200.

Maulden

past week, Sam Davis of this place cow from Robert Smith for $50 .--Powell Lee has pneumonia.

Hurley

Hurley, March 29 .- The farmers are getting behind with their work on account of bad weather.-Born

Brewer and Miss Martha Welch were zen readers. quietly married at Miss Welch's home Saturday p.m., March 20th. Richmond, Saturday.

Carico be sad to hear of his death.-Orbin and family will be greatly missed.

goods to the depot for W. H. Roberts, Cemetery.

against Arthur Mullins for the mur- of Grandma Davidson, widow of Jer- of their many friends. der of George Shelton will be tried ry Davidson, who lived with her son Wednesday.-W. R. Engle of Gray James Davidson of near this place, Hawk was in town last week attend- died March 16. She was about sevening to business .- A. T. W. Manning ty-three years of age and had been wealth attorney.—John S. Balley is All her children were with the week in town attending cept her only daughter, Mrs. James very badly.—The Sunday School ex- has still before it the mission of bement, brick, and has a private switch to business.—C. E. Smith's wife is Deaton of Breathitt County. She was very low, with acute brights dis- a good old woman and we believe ease. Doctors Hornsby nad Mahaf- has gone to rest. She was buried fey are the attending physicians. hear Welchburg. "Weep not that Sheriff John Farmer is having a very her toils are over; weep not that her busy time this week, attending to race is run. God grant we may rest

Clover Bottom

Clover Bottom, March 30.-Wilson VanWinkle is very low with a re-Maulden, March 29, 1915.- The lapse of pneumonia fever.-Mr. Revs. William Johnson and G. P. Mays of Clay County has moved in-Hacker preached at Mt. Gillead Sat- to the place purchased of C. M. Azurday and Sunday.-Huston Farmer bill. We are glad to welcome him and Mrs. I. S. McGeorge, who have in our neighborhood.-Several from been sick so long are no better .-- this county attended court today for Martin Cook of this place has gone the trial of Clay Miller, charged with out near Gray Hawk to build a biting off an ear of Merida Durhouse for Ben Smith .- Married, the ham .- Aunt Jennie Azbill bought a to Miss Mary Tofer of Gray Hawk. Isaac Ray Dean, who has been at-We wish the couple a long and happy tending school at Berea this winter, life.-Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. has returned home.-J, R. Engle and Simpson, the past week, a girl. Robert Abrams are attending court at McKee this week as jurors.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY Johnetta

Johnetta, March 26.—The Farmers' to Mr. and Mrs. George McCollum, a Club, at Johnetta, has met three girl, March 24.—Several from this times in their business meetings and place attended church at Pine Flat, is having fine success. They have or-Sunday.—Claude Baker lost a valua- dered seeds such as cowpeas, clovers, ble mule recently.-The Rev. B. H. timothys, oats, etc. The boys' corn Cole of Pittsburg preached some very club at Johnetta is now organized interesting sermons at Indian Creek with thirteen members. Dewie Saturday and Sunday.—The little Ballinger is president.—The Rev. infant of Mr. and Mrs. Green Mc-Collum is very low with fever.—
Mrs. Dave Gabbard is on the sick

Mrs. Dave list this week.—George Gabbard of sale at Johnetta today, the 26th, sell-Livingston has moved to this neigh- ing the merchandise of J. W. Lee. borhood.-Maggie McCullum of Dou- Done by Parks and Son of Richmond, ble Lick is staying with her brother, for a meal and flour debt.—Mrs. George McCollum, this week .- Corn Ettie Mullins is sick, but is better .is selling at $1 per bushel.—Hurran Rev. Geo. Childress made a business for The Citizen and its many read- trip to Berea and Wildie Monday .-J. R. Ballinger and Geo. Drew are just about done pruning the big or-Green Hall, March 26.—Norman chards.—Happiness to all The Citi-

CLAY COUNTY Burning Springs

Rev. Elder and J. B. Spence officiat- Burning Springs, March 26 .- Missed.-Mr. and Mrs. Silas Flanery have es Cynthian and Pearl Turner have been visiting their son and daugh- returned from Oneida where they ters at Beattyville for the past were attending school.-The many week .- Luther Pierson lost a good friends of Monroe Hornsby will be mare the last week .- F. F. McCol-pleased to learn that he won a gold lum will make a business trip to medal at the recent oratorical conitest. Monroe was a good student while in school here and hope that Carico, March 29 .- Willie Roberts he will press onward and take a colhas moved his family to Clark lege course.-Miss Elizabeth Scoville, County to make his future home .- h former teacher of this place, is Sunday School begins at Flat Top here in the interest of organizing a Church House the first Sunday in Tomato Club.-Recently a party of April. The second Sunday in April us went to Island City to assist Prof. is the regular appointment for C. F. Chestnut in his very successful Brother James Lunsford and also revival. The church is in a very a Bible entertainment will be given flourishing condition under the able by the young people.-Miss Ellen pastorage of Brother Chestnut. There ercises were very interesting Sun- ing the greatest instrumentality in Roberts has returned from staying were nine conversions and seven ad-day, and a large crowd was the progress of the world. Robert orchestra helped greatly toward with her grandma.-Mr. S. R. Rob- ditions.-The people of Island City present.-Misses Bertha Todd and Underwood Johnson. erts is attending court at McKee have a beautiful new and commo- Nettye Upthegrove were in Rich- Mass. this week .- People of this vicinity dious graded school building and this mond shopping Wednesday .- There MOTORCYCLE DRIVEN ALONG PERare beginning to sow their oats.— with the united church fellowship will be an Easter egg hunt at the There has been a tide in the river have put them among the most pro- Baptist Church next Sunday. Evhere for the last week and some ties gressive people of the mountains .- erybody invited. were run to market -- We are sorry to Mr. and Mrs. Green Allen announced learn of the death of Lewis Evans the birth of a daughter.-J. S. Rawof Perry County, as he has brothers lings is closing out his business here and relatives of this place who will to reside at Annville. Mr. Rawlings pleasant community. - The many friends of Stephen Rice and family sympathize with them in the sudden death of their son, Jack, who died of peritonitis. The latter had recently gone with his wife, sister and family to Illinois, where the sad laid to rest here in the Thompson event took place. His remains were the church can render is to stand acts on the wax-cylinder record of a Vine, March 27 .- We have been which may be agreed upon between earpiece down, on the socket of the Parrot, March 27 .- Matt Cunigan having some snow for the last two him and his employer. At the same recording instrument, and in this the State of Kentucky, subject to left Monday for Hamilton, O .- A ser. weeks .- Mrs. William Pennington is time it should bring moral pressure position sends to the transmitter the action of the Republican party, ies of meeting is being held at the very poorly.—Allen Coffee has sold to bear upon the employing classes within the box all sounds that pass home of Edmond Murrays this week, his little farm to Garrett Marcum to make sure that their attitude to- through the telephone. To use the by Holiness people.-Doctors Good- for $150.-Charley Melton had a ward their workmen is one of sym- telephone receiver in this way, it man and White performed an op-working Friday .- Mrs. Browning is pathy and humanity. I am more must be wired to both circuits in McKee eration last Tuesday on Sid Hacker, no better.—Ben Reynold's family and more convinced that entirely the telephone. The user then talks into the telephone in the usual way, is in session and there are several ting along very well since the oper- James Pennington is very poorly at charities and that the church can but uses a small receiver attached penal cases to try.—The case of the ation.—Mrs. Lewis Cunagin has re- this writing. Hiram McWhorter of be of enormous service in directing to the recording instrument. The Commonwealth against Jack Madden bevered from an attack of pneumonia Maulden and Miss Sallie Allen of these funds more proportionately phonograph can be started and stopfor the murder of Mack Gipson was fever.—Lincoln Baker of Rockcastle Ethel were quitely married at the into the channels of preventive ped at will by means of two push tried last week and Madden was ac- County and a Mr. Allen were here bride's home Thursday evening. A work. I think there is an increas- buttons. quitted by the jury. — The case this week on business.—The friends long and prosperous life is the wish ing conviction among thoughtful people that there is great waste of financial resources by reason of the the premises we will offer at public lack of unity in church effort-a sale at Paint Lick, Ky., a parcel of complication of work which would land on which is located a coal and Speedwell, March 26.—Elgie Lakes, not be tolerated in any other practi- lumber yard. It has on it a good spent several days in town last in poor health all winter. She was when going home from Sunday cal activity. Whatever may be the stable, coal shed, house for dressed spent several days in town last in poor health all willer. She was week, in his interest for Common- stricken down Friday, the twelfth. School, was thrown from his horse changes of attitude towards the doc- lumber, etc. Is an established busiweek, in his interest for Common-stricken down Friday, the twenth, on the pike, and his head was cut trines of the church, I believe that it ness in coal, lumber, lime, sand, ce-

MADISON COUNTY Speedwell

PREVENT EVILS RATHER THAN OPERATE THROUGH CHARITY WRITES ROBERT U. JOHN-SON, AUTHOR AND SOCIOLOGIST

NEGITIONING()

(O TAGE I KNEW WHERE I MIGHT FIND HIM - JOB)

THE FAITHFUL FRIENDS HIS TOMB APPROACHED

AS WEARY WATCHES WORE AWAY -

AT EARLY DAWN OF THE FIRST DAY,

THE LINEN WRAPS WERE LAID ASIDE -

HE COULD NOT IN THE GRAVE ABIDE.

AND LO' THE TOMB WAS EMPTY

THEY HAD NOT YET ANOINTED HIM

AND BY THEM STOOD A SERAPHIM

UNTO THEIR NEEDS TO MINISTER

WITH SPICES AND PERFUMES MOST RARE

THE ANGEL ANSWERED - HE & NOT MERE

YOUR LORD HAS CONQUERED EVERY FEAR.

AND TRIUMPHED OVER PAIN AND WOE

NOW KNOW THAT DEATH DOES NOT END ALL

AND HOPE SINGS SONGS SUPERNAL

THAT LIFE SURVIVES THE TOMB'S COLD THRALE

O TELL WHERE THOU HAST LAID HIM

A K A A A

WE WOULD MIS BODY NOW PREPARE

things that make a successful and THE CHURCH SHOULD AIM TO ence. This apparatus consists of a small metal box which contains a set of dry batteries and an extremely sensitive telephone transmitter. Both ends of the telephone conversation are taken up by this receiver and retransmitted by the dry bat-The most important service which teries to an electric recorder that like a rock against all forms of phonograph. In using, the regular lawlessness and in favor of the right receiver of the telephone is taken of every man to work for a wage from the hook and placed, with the

PUBLIC SALE

On April 17th at 2 o'clock p.m., on adjoining. This is an opening for a live man to do a big business.

The tract contains about 31/4 acres with site for house and splendid bottom for large garden and corn patch. At the same time I will sell a 10-horse power boiler and éngine and some stacks of lumber.

This sale is to close out our partnership owing to Mr. Rucker's ill health. Terms liberal and will be made known on day of sale.

BURNAM & RUCKER. Long Tom Chenault, Auctioneer.

UNION CHURCH NEWS (Continued from page five.)

Last Sunday Mr. Hudson spoke at Scaffold Cane Church in the morning and at Faristown in the evening.

The Christian Endeavor District Convention at Nicholasville was attended by five delegates from Berea, Messrs. Sebastian, Ruiz, Misses Lewis and Hollan and Dr. Roberts. They succeeded in awakening interest m the coming state convention at Be-chase. He spoke of the possibilities scription and some friends' and you of Berea becoming a center in the will get the pen worth the money poultry business. He estimated that you pay us, $2.00. a person could clear at least $1 % on every hen, and with a farm of 1,000 hens, which is not impossible by as syrup of figs. Securing a capital of $10,000 the young fellow organized a company; he spent $9,500 for advertising and $500 for the manufacture of his medicine. Today he is worth several million dollars and syrup of figs is sold and used from coast to coast. Mr. Degman believes Berea should advertise the advantages and opportunities which it has to offer and the rest will follow.

CIVIC LEAGUE NEWS (Continued from page five.)

Mr. Bingham reported for the committee appointed to look after the boys of the town. He said he had plans afoot for the organization of a juvenile baseball team to be composed of boys about the town. This will be a good step toward the solution of the boy problem if he is successful in his plans.

The meeting closed at 9:20 with a song, the orchestra accompanying. The next meeting will be held at the Baptist Church a month hence.

Word might be mentioned concerning the good assistance rendered by the orchestra. Music is almost indispensable for any meeting which desires to have any of the mixed $15.50, No. 1 clover $17.50, No. 2 boom or go about it and the church clover $15.50. making this meeting a success.

STATE MILITIA AIDS OFFICIALS.

Corning, N. Y .- Neafly 500 militiamen, police officers and citizens were searching the woods in the vicinity of Addison and Woodhull, seeking John Penny, of Paterson, N. J., wanted in connection with the murder of Police Chief Finnell and Detective Gradwell, of Elmira. The man hunt began after a man supposed to be Penny fired a revolver at a farmhand, near Painted Post, A farmer reported that an armed man forced him to answer questions about topography of country.

COLLEGIATE REGISTRARS MEET trars will be held at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich., on April 20, 21, and 22. The sessions of the three days will be devoted Best-because it's the purest. Best because it never fails. Best - because it makes every baking light, fluffy and evenly raised. Best-because it is moderate in costhighest in quality.

At your grocers.

RECEIVED HIGHEST

Here is a fine scheme if you never took The Citizen. Give us your sub-

IN OUR OWN STATE

(Continued from page 1) any means, a net profit of $1500 a over the country. It is believed that year could be realized. He empha- the indentification of the third man sized the value of advertizing, giving as illustration the young drug clerk who discovered the medicine known as to the best place for prosecution. -Lexington Herald.

> Kentucky History in Outline Correlates with U. S. History Price 25 Cente

Miss Maggie Reynolds Nicholasville, Ky

Wheat-No. 2 red $1.48@1.49, No. 3 Wheat—No. 2 red $1.48@1.49, No. 5 red $1.44@1.47, No. 4 red $1.40@1.43.
Corn—No. 1 white 75½c, No. 2 white 75@75½c, No. 3 white 74½@75c, No. 1 yellow 75c, No. 2 yellow 74½@75c, No. 3 yellow 74½@75c, No. 1 mixed 75c, No. 2 mixed 75½, No. 3 mixed 75½.

Oats—No. 2 white 60@60½c, standard 59½@60c, No. 3 white 58½@58½c, No. 4 white 58½@59c, No. 2 mixed 59 @59½c, No. 3 mixed 58½@59c, No. 4 mixed 58@58½c.

Hay—No. 1 timothy $18.50, No. 2 timothy $16.50, No. 3 timothy $14.50, No. 1 clover mixed $17.50, No. 2 clover

Eggs-Prime firsts 181/2c, firsts 171/2c, ordinary firts 17c, seconds

Poultry—Capons, 3 lbs and over, 17 @20c; fowls, 4 lbs and over, 15c; under 4 lbs, 15c; old roosters, 10c; young, staggy roosters, 11c; springers, 1½ lb and under, 22c; over 3½ lbs, 16½c; 3½ lbs and under, 17½c; spring ducks, white, 4 lbs and over, 16½c; spring ducks, white, over 3 lbs, 14c; spring ducks, white, under 3 lbs, 11½c; colored, 11½c; hen turkeys, 8 lbs and over, 18c; old tom turkeys, 16½c; young tom turkeys, 10 lbs and 16½c; young tom turkeys, 10 lbs and over, 16½c; turkeys, crooked breasted, 10c; culls, 8c.

Cattle—Shippers $6.25@7.50, extra $7.50@7.75; good to choice $6.50@7.50, common to fair $5.50@6.28; heifers, extra $7.75@8, good to choice $7@7.65, common to fair $5.60.6.75; cows, extra $6, good to choice $5.50@5.90, common to fair $3.50@5; canners, $3.25@4.50.

Bulls—Bologna $5.50@6.15, extra $6.25, fat bulls $6@6.25.

Calves—Extra $10.50, fair to good $8

Calves-Extra $10.50, fair to good $8 @10.25, common and large $6@10. Hogs—Selected heavy $7.30@7.40, largely to open conference and round table work on the problems of the registrar's office. The speakers will include a representative of the Bureau of Education in Washington.

| South Conference and round table work on the problems of the registrar's office. The speakers will include a representative of the Bureau of Education in Washington.

When She Uses

Pott's Gold Dust Flour

The Cook Smiles and So Does the Bread

Always used Once tried

BELL COUNTY Ralston

derson, last week .- Dan Wilcox and skill and nerve of the driver." Horace Hunley of Strait Creek is here this week on business.—Mrs. Alf. Cinimon is sick at this writing .- W. E. Bullock has returned to his home at Withers ..- Ben Edmonson is on the sick list this week. Best wishes to The Citizen and it's many readers.

Siasconset,

PENDICULAR WALL "Going at a speed of from 75 to 85 miles an hour, a motorcyclist succeeded in driving his machine around the perpendicular wall at the top of amotordrome," says the Feb-Ralston, March 30.—Turner Over-rurary Popular Mechanics Magazine. by, a driver in the mines, got hurt "This is a regular amusement park Smith hauled a load of household They have taken the lead in all good very bad the 25th inst. He was feat for automobiles, but is seldom caught between the car and the attempted with a motorcycle, since rib and hurt very badly in the hips the machine must be driven at terand stomach.—S. F. York has moved rific speed and must stand out alto his farm in Rockcastle County. most horizontally from the wall. It Boston Anderson visited his father is a good example of the power of The annual meeting of the Ameriand mother, Mr. and Mrs. James An- centrifugal force, as well as of the can Association of Collegiate Regis-

EPHONE CONVERSATION

An interesting addition to telephone equipment is an apparatus described, with illustration, in the February Popular Mechanics Magazine, by which telephone conversations may be recorded for future refer. Bureau of Education in Washington.

ANNOUNCEMENT We are now in our new store and shop in the Old Post Office building, corner Short and Jackson Streets. Call on us for all kinds of new and repair work in the sheet metal line - stove, furnace, roofing, guttering.

BEREA SCHOOL OF ROOFING none 7 or 181-2 Henry Lengfellner, Mgr. Berea, Ky.